Enclosed is my check for my 1987 subscription; please notice the change of address.

You may be interested to learn that this past summer I visited my son who is stationed in West Germany with the US Army. Previously I received a copy of a letter from Philipp Greib to Jann Cripe of Los Angeles and fortunately I was able to find a German postal clerk who was willing to spend some time trying to locate Amoneburg. The best he could do was tell me it was near Marburg. We spent a half day at this lovely city including a visit to their historical castle. While returning to Weisbaden I saw a road sign pointing to Amoneburg; the town is located on top a large conical shaped hill on otherwise flat land. Somehow I was able to drive directly to Herr Greib's address and met a couple in front of the house who turned out to be Philipp and his wife. Although his wife spoke no English we were able to communicate because Philipp had spent some time in the United States. When he learned I was a descendant of Jacob Greib and from America, we were welcomed with open arms. My wife was particularly interested inour tour of their 300 year old house which has been continuously occupied by a member of the Greib family. Herr Greib is involved in local politics and is also an official of the Marburg district so he was able to take us into all the public buildings including the Church where the archives are located. These records go back to 1500 but unfortunately I was on a short vacation trip with plans to visit other European countries; also I would need an interpreter to peruse the records and in all probability it might take some time to get permission to view the older records in the vaults. Our host gave us a walking tour of the town with full commentary which was most interesting. We were told that almost all Germans with the Greib surname live in Amoneburg or Koblenz. The history of this town, formerly a fortress, goes back prior to the birth of Christ and the local museum has numerous relics and archeological finds which witness to the early days. The town was destroyed several times in various wars but was spared during WW 1 and WW 2. The only disappointment was the village cemetery which we were told is turned over every thirty years and bones are placed in caverns.

I am sure that if any of our American cousins have an opportunity to visit these people they will also receive a warm welcome.

Sincerely,

William E. Morgan

Sehr geehrte Frau Cripe !

Von einem Bekannten wurde mir die Fachzeitung "Familienkundliche Nachrichten" gegeben mit der Bitte, mich der Sache anzunehmen. Und zwar möchten Sie eine Auskunft über - Greib, Jacob + wann, wo (um 1712) ausgewandert nach USA - haben.

Der Familienname Greib ist in Deutschland sehr selten. Es ist ein keltischer Name. Die Kelten haben unsere Heimat Amöneburg 450 v. Chr. bis Christi Geburt besiedelt. Der Familienname Greib existiert in der Gegend von Koblenz und Andernach am Rhein. Von allen diesen Namensträgern kommen die Vorfahren aus Amöneburg. In Amöneburg ist die Linie Greib bis zum heutigen Tag vorhanden. Ich selbst bewohne das Stammhaus Greib, das ca. 300 Jahre alt ist. Auch besitze ich noch ein Bild von meinem Urgroßvater, geboren um 1799 - 1802. Frühere Urkunden über meinen Urgroßvater habe ich nicht mehr. Ich bitze aber noch einige Unterlagen aus dem Stadtarchiv Amöneburg aus dem Jahre 1838.

Aus Amöneburg (heute eine Stadt mit 1500 Einwohnern) sind in den Jahren 1700 - 1900 viele Bewohner nach USA ausgewandert. Ich selbst war mit meiner Familie von 1956 - 1958 auch in Amerika (Long Iland), bin aber wieder zurück nach Deutschland. Es leben von unserer Linie zur Zeit noch viele Verwandte in USA, aber alle nicht unter dem Namen Greib.

Es kann mit hoher Wahrscheinlichkeit angenommen werden, daß dieser Jacob Greib aus Amöneburg kam. Ich habe kurz das Pfarrarchiv eingesehen. Hier sind Eintragungen ab 1500 vermerkt. In den Jahren 1706 und 1708 gibt es zwei Eintragungen über einen Jacob Greib. Um dieses genau zu überprüfen, müßte man tagelange Untersuchungen anstellen. Sollte ich noch Genaueres in Erfahrung bringen, werde ich es Ihnen mitteilen.

Mit herzlichen Grüßen

Philipp Greib

Dear Mrs Cripe,

An acquaintance gave me the magazine "Family Origins" and requested that I undertake the research. You would like then some information about Greib, Jacob - the "when" and "where" of the year 1712 - when they emigrated to the U.S.A.

The family name Greib is a rare one in Germany. It is a Celtic name. The Celts settled our hometown Amoneburg between 450 B.C. and the birth of Christ.

The name exists mostly in the Rhine areas of Koblenz and Andernach. All people with this (Greib) come from Amoneburg. The family line Greib still up to date and in evidence in that town. I myself live in the original (root) house of the Greibs, it is about 300 years old. Also, I'm still in possession of a picture of my great-grandfather, born 1799-1802. Earlier information about him I no longer have. I have however some documents from City Archives Amoneburg dating back to 1838. Many citizens of Amoneburg (1500 inhabitants) emigrated to the U.S. in the period 1700 - 1900. I myself lived in Long Island from 1956 - 58, now back in Germany. Many of our relatives (family line) still live in the U.S., but not all under the name Greib.

It is highly probable that the Jacob Greib in question came from Amoneburg. Recently I took a look at the Church Archives. There are entries there since 1500. For the years 1706 and 1708 there are two entries about Jacob Greib. To really verify and research this would take days. If I can find more and precise information I shall inform you.

Sincerely,

Philipp Greib

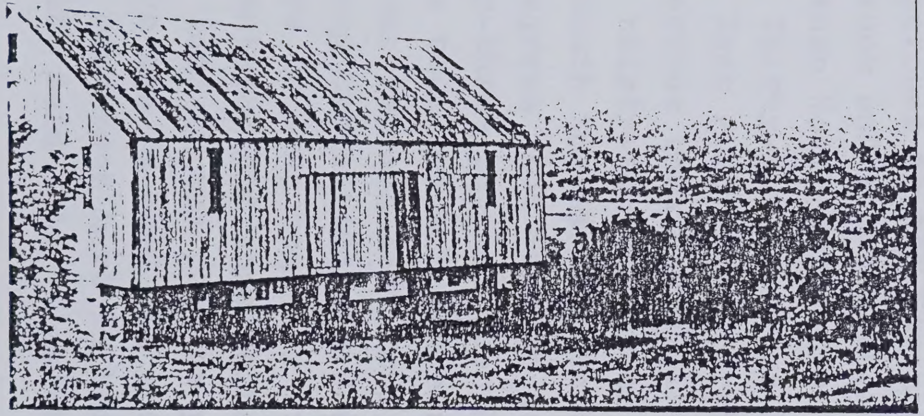
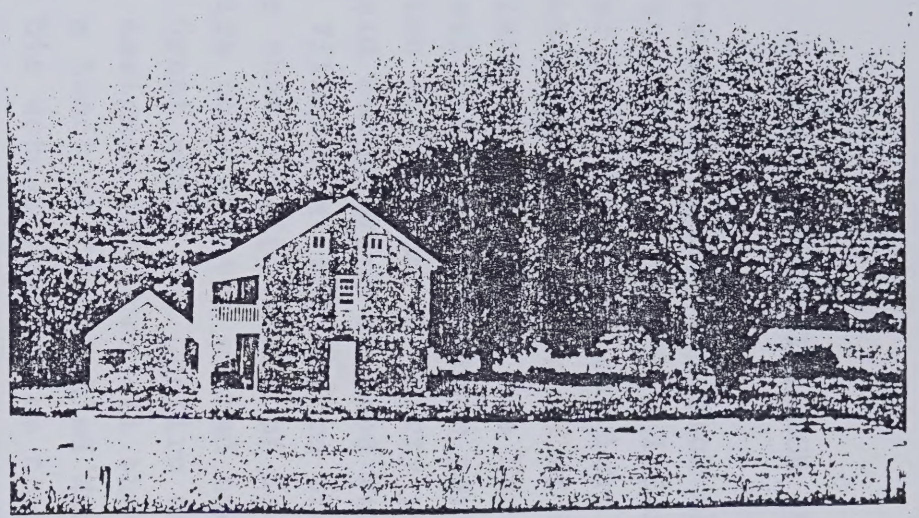
BLAIR'S VALLEY, MARYLAND





One of the more interesting aspects of genealogy is the opportunity (excuse) to travel and visit the places where our ancestors lived and worked. This past August, my wife and I were in Hagerstown, Maryland and took the opportunity to travel a few miles west to Clear Spring. It was during the Revolutionary War era that John Cripe, son of the immigrant, settled about two miles north on land called Blair's Valley. Today, much of Blair's Valley is a conservation area with very little cultivated land, but one can imagine what it was like two hundred years ago with several homesteads nestled between the surrounding mountains. The photos were taken in the south end of the valley with a view to the west. The land owned by John Cripe was in the southwest part of the valley, so I can only assume it would be in the background behind the house and barn.

County, were John Henry Kalclesser, of Frankenthal; Christian Liebe (Leib), of Ebstein; Johanna Nass (Noss), of Norten; Peter Becker, of Dillsheim; John Henry Trout and several brothers; Heinrich Holsapple and Stephen Koch, of the Palatinate.

Come to America. This religious body suffered great persecutions in parts of the Fatherland. Some fled to Crefeld, Prussia, from thence to Holland, thence to the province of Friesland, in the hope of finding an asylum of peace and safety, but were everywhere disappointed until they "turned their faces toward the land of Penn," where this entire religious body soon emigrated. Twenty families first emigrated, with Elder Peter Becker at their head, in 1719, and settled in the vicinity of Germantown, Pennsylvania. In 1729 thirty more families came over under the leadership of the celebrated Alexander Mack, who himself was a noted evangelist and a descendant of the Waldenses so well known to history. Settlements of them were soon formed at Skippack, Montgomery County, Oley, in Berks, and Conestoga, in Lancaster; all under the care of preachers Mack and Becker. In 1723 the church held a first election in America and chose Conrad Beissel, a minister, and John Hildebrand, a deacon, both to serve in Lancaster County. In the language of an old record, "Conrad Beissel got wise in his own conceit, had an idea that Saturday was the Lord's day, secured a number of followers, and in 1729 organized, at Ephrata, the German Seventh-day Baptists," who were afterward known as a distinct church body. In 1732 Beissel organized a monastic society at Ephrata. The churches at Ephrata, at Conestoga, and one in Chester County attracted so many settlers that land became high. So numerous members of the Brethren Church, as early as 1736, began to migrate to what is now York County. Some went down into Maryland.

Conewago Church. The first church in York County by the Brethren was organized in 1738, "twenty miles west from the town of York, on the Little Conewago." This was in the vicinity of Hanover. The district embraced by the church included a large extent of territory east, north and northwest of the site of the present town of Hanover. It will thus be seen that the German Baptists were among the earliest people to form church organizations in York County.

Among the early members who organized this church, in 1738, were Eldrick, Dierdorff, Bigler, Gripe, Studsman and others. Among the prominent members of this congregation in 1770 were Jacob Moyer and James Henrick, preachers; Hans Adam Snyder, George Wine, Daniel Woods, Henry Geing, Joseph Moyer, Nicholas Hostetter, Christian Hostetter, Rudy Brown, Dobis Brother, Jacob Miller, Michael Koutz, Stephen Peter, Henry Tanner, Michael Tanner, John Moyer, Jacob Souder, Henry Hoff, John Swartz. The wives of all these persons named were also members of this church. The unmarried members were Barbara Snyder, John Geing, Maud Bowser, George Peter, Hester Wise, Christian Etter, John Peter Weaver, Barbara Bear, Elizabeth Boering, Grace Hymen.

Their first preacher was Daniel Leatherman, Senior. He was followed by Nicholas Martin, Jacob Moyer (Meyers), James Hendrich (Henry), etc.

In 1741 there was another church organized in the limits of what was then York County, "on the Great Conewago, about fourteen miles west from the new town of York." This was the same year York was founded. Many of the members of the church lived in the present territory of Adams County, in the vicinity of the villages of Abbottstown and East Berlin. Among the first members of this organization were John Neagley, Adam Sower, Jacob Sweigard, Peter Neiper and Joseph Latshaw. Their first elder was George Adam Martin, who was followed by Daniel Leatherman, Jr., and Nicholas Martin. The following were the members in 1770 George Brown, preacher; John Heiner Peter Fox Anthony Dierdorff, Nicholas Moyer, Manasseh Brough, Michael Bosserman, David Ehrhard, Daniel Baker, Abraham Stauffer, Henry Dierdorff, John Burkholder, Andrew Trimmer, Eustace Rensel, Peter Dierdorff, Barnett Augenbaugh, John Neagley, Michael Brissel, Welty Brissel, Matthias Bouser, Laurence Baker, Philip Snell, Nicholas Baker, Jr., Adam Sower, Adam Dick, Henry Brissel, David Brissel, Henry Radibush, George Wagner, HISTORY OF YORK COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

Jacob Gripe petitions the Court as follows: "He being appointed overseer of Conococheague roads and the one being twenty miles in length and the other seven that it is too much for me to comply with and the imhabitants also think very hard of being compelled so farr when said roads would give work enough for three overseers with such roads as is wanting and useful in said limits which are these following, viz; A road from Isaac Baler's to another from William Thompson's and from there another to Conolloway (Tomoloway), all of which said roads are here mentioned is needful and we the subscribers most humbly pray relief to us and overseer and commissions granted for two other overseers and such roads as here exprest order of Court for clearing the same and we petitioners do pray. N. B. There also ought to be a road from Joseph Volgemore's to said Conococheague."

The Court rejects this petition.

These roads are in the same area as Clear Spring and Blair's Valley. See page 2.

THE CRIPES

[by Gladys Rogers

The following is our line of descent from our Cripe ancestors:

1. Jacob Gripe (Greib) - ca. 1712 - 1802 -- immigrant in 1733
2. Elder Daniel Cripe - d. 71 yrs. Montgomery Co., Ohio
3. Daniel Cripe, b. July 12, 1785, d. May 22, 1865
4. Jacob Cripe, b. Jan. 11, 1817, d. March 14, 1900

Jacob Cripe (Greib)[1]

Jacob Gripe[1], the ancestor of the Cripes in America, lived in Germany near the sea. He was a cooper by trade. His coming to America was rather sudden according to all stories or legends obtained from several various lines of Cripes, although varying some in detail. He lived near either a military camp or college, and the cadets or students often teased him, possibly to become one of them. One night as he was working in his shop they came to torment him, and as they were rough and cruel he would not let them in. They found a narrow opening where they could enter one at a time.

The cooper had a long, heavy knife with a cord attached to it. He usually threw this knife into whichever pole he wanted for making hoops and pulled it to him. He now threw this knife at the students as they entered and according to legend at least one if not more may have been killed or hurt. Now what could he do? A big ship was leaving in the morning for America. In the darkness he slipped into the ship and hid himself, and was not found till the ship was far out, and got over.

So Jacob Gripe, 21, landed in America on Sept. 28, 1733, on the ship Brigantine Richard and Elizabeth - see PENNSYLVANIA GERMAN PIONEERS by Ralph Beaver Strassburger and William John Hinke, Volume I (1727-1775) Norristown, Penna., Pennsylvania German Society, 1934, p. 126, List 33-A, Sept. 28, 1733, Brigantine Richard and Elizabeth, Captain Christopher Clymer. He is also mentioned in THIRTY THOUSAND NAMES OF IMMIGRANTS, Isreal Daniel Rupp, 2nd Rev. Ed. Reprint, Genealogical Publ. Co., Baltimore, 1965, page 91.

He had 150 acres in Lancaster Co., Pa., in 1743. See 3rd Series of the PENNSYLVANIA ARCHIVES, WARRANTIES OF LAND (1784-1895), Lancaster County (1733-1896), Vol. XXIV, p. 415, date of survey Feb. 18, 1743.

By 1776 or 1779 he had 700 acres of land in Bedford Co., Pa., which township he lived in (Franktown Twp.) became part of Huntingdon Co., Pa. in 1788. See Vol. XXI Transcript of Taxables in 3rd Series of the PENNSYLVANIA ARCHIVES, p. 121, and p. 359. He also had 3 horses and 6 cattle.

Pennsylvania was friendly to all classes of people and the cooper trade was a good one and this man got along well. In the course of time he married a German woman, Elizabeth Ulrich, and had a family. It is more than likely that the German cooper heard the preaching of the Dunkers, as other people called them because they dipped (immersed) three times. They stressed the command, "Thou shalt not kill", and taught that it was wrong to go to war.

It is more than likely that his conscience may have troubled him and he may have sought pardon by entering the church. At least, we know that he and his family made a long journey to the west from Lancaster Co., and joined a settlement of Dunkers at Franktown. This is about seven miles southeast of where Altoona, Pennsylvania, now stands. Their coming may have been about 1765.

The Franktown, Pa., home seems to have been a safe and prosperous place. During the stormy time of the American Revolution from 1775 to 1783, it seems they were never disturbed by war or by hostile Indians. From all we can learn, it seems the Franktown country was a hilly country. Probably the land, somewhat improved, became higher priced. At least these church people, almost everyone of them, moved into the rich, level woods of Ohio, settling in the Miami Valley, west and north of Dayton. This movement began in about 1798 or 1800. Franktown must have either had the name changed or the town entirely wiped off the map by the imigration west. Sarah Cripe Ranck speaks of her Grandmother, Elizabeth Ulery Cripe (wife of David Cripe, son of Daniel Cripe[3]) speaking of old time neighbors and she would say, "They were Franktowners." At that time Sarah would wonder what kind of a creature a Franktowner was and would be told that they all lived at Franktown, Pennsylvania.

Jacob Gripe[1] did not move to Ohio but died in Pennsylvania in 1801 and his will is recorded in Huntingdon Co., Pa. The original will is in German and L. W. Shultz, No. Manchester, Indiana transcribed this into English, which is never quite as good as the original translation. A copy of this is as follows:

Jacob GREIB^1 may have lived in Frederick Co., Md. in 1754 for in the court records of that year Stephen ULRICH, Sr. (U) serves in his place as "Overseer of the Poor". Stephen is likely a brother of Elizabeth. The order of birth of the above 10 children is uncertain. Samuel may have been born between 1750 and 1755 if his first marriage date is close. Hannah could have been born as late as 1770, and Catharine near 1764. Susannah should have been born before 1750. The name of MASON, FETTERS and McDONALD* appear frequently in the Huntingdon Co., Pa. tax lists on lands entered by Jacob GREIB^1, as do all of the above known children. Elizabeth was likely married 2nd to one of the above.

Early source material is desired to correctly identify and establish the above family. Additions, corrections and comments are welcome. Descendants are urged to collect data on their families and ancestors. Help has come from many persons across the country; their help has been invaluable.

UPPER CODORUS CONGREGATION

This society is so distinguished from a branch of the Conewago near to which the people made their settlements in the township of Hanover and County of York, twenty miles from the town of York and one hundred and seven miles west by south from Philadelphia. The preachers are Messrs. Jacob Moyer and James Hetrick, but are not ordained. The families belonging to the place are about forty, whereof fifty-two persons are baptized.

This was the first Brethren Church established west of Susquehanna. In 1738 when one Eldrick, Dierdorff, Bigler, Gripe, Studsman, and others united into a church, having Reverend Daniel Leatherman to their assistance. He left them and went to Monocacy, after him they had Reverend Nicolas Martin who also quitted them to go to Conococheague. Their successors are the present ministers before mentioned. It seems the volume promised on Maryland was never issued; at any rate I have no knowledge of such volume being in existence.

J. F. Saches says the volume on Maryland was written but not published. In MS form it burned in the late fire of the Baptist Publication Society.

Many members went to the Conococheague and to Monocacy from the various congregations in Pennsylvania. Among them were prominent and efficient ministers, but we know little of their work in their early days. The scores of congregations of the present day, however, attest the faithful devotions of those pioneers and the success of the migration to the "Southland".

The membership of the Little Conewago Congregation in 1770 was as follows: Jacob Moyer, exhorter, and wife; James Hendrick, exhorter, and wife; Hans Adams Sneider and wife; Barbara Sneider; George Wine and wife; Gohn Geiny and wife; Daniel Woods and wife; Henry Geiny and wife; Joseph Moyer and wife; Nickolas Housteter and wife; Christian Houstetter and wife; Rudy Brown and wife; Dobis Brother and wife; Jacob Miller and wife; Michael Kouts and wife; Mrs. Bowser; Mrs. Moyer; Stephen Peter and wife and daughter; Maud Bowser; George Peter; Henry Donner (Tanner) and wife; Michael Tanner (Donner) and wife; Jahn Moyer and wife; Jacob Souder and wife; Henry Hoeff and wife; Hester Weis; Christian Etor; John Peter Weaver; Barbara Bear; John Swarts and wife; Eliza Berring; Great Hyman.

The scope of territory included then what is now held by Hanover, Pleasant Hill and part of York. It was bounded by he united with the church and began his long church activity which has continued unceasingly to the present. Throughout all the various trials of the Beaver Creek Church he has been a staunch pillar in its support. He was elected a deacon in 1877, a minister in 1882, and ordained to the eldership in 1892. He has had charge of the Beaver Creek Church for many years. His wife died some years ago, since which time he continues to reside on the old homestead with one of his sons. He is a man of means and is universally regarded as a good counselor.

DANIEL CRIPE

Daniel Cripe was born in Pennsylvania April 6, 1772. They lived a short time in Maryland, Kentucky, then in Ohio. He became a minister with three of his brothers as deacons, viz.: John, Joseph and Samuel. They were charter members of the Lower Miami Church when organized and also of the Wolf Creek division in 1811. Daniel Cripe was the Presiding Elder of this church until 1828 when he moved to northern Indiana, where he soon built the first home just south of where the town of Goshen now stands, helped to make the first plow, plowed the first furrow, preached the first sermon, and organized the first church in Northern Indiana in 1830. He was a member of standing committee of the Special Annual Meeting of 1848. He was a man of medium height, broad shouldered and well muscled. Being of a kindly disposition he made many friends. He died in 1859 aged 87 years 7 months and 4 days.

JACOB CRIST, Sr.

Jacob Crist, Sr., was born in Augusta County, Virginia, January 16, 1801. He was an orphan boy and had his home among the Brubakers. About the age of eighteen he came to Clark County, Ohio. When about twenty-one years of age he married Magdalene Frantz, sister of Nicholas Frantz. He lived near North Hampton for a number of years. Here his wife died. He then married Catherine Ohmert March 30, 1826. About this time he was elected to the deacon's office. He purchased a farm in Logan County, October 23, 1829. While living there he was called to the ministry. He sold his farm May 1, 1840, and bought the old Crist homestead one-half mile west of North Hampton, to which place he moved the same year. He was ordained in 1847. In public speaking he used the English language, and was an able speaker and Bible student. He died January 31, 1849, aged 48 years and 15 days. The church and community felt keenly the loss.

JACOB CRIST, Jr.

Jacob Crist, Jr., son of Elder Jacob and Magdelene Crist (nee Frantz), was born near North Hampton, Ohio, August 16, 1824. He united with the church at the age of nineteen. Was married to Elizabeth, daughter of Elder John and Anna Mary Frantz (nee Lower Stillwater Church.

Lower Stillwater

THIS is one of the four churches formed out of the original Lower Miami by the Virginia Committee, October 18, 1811. Many of its members had been charter members of the original organizations in 1805, such as the Millers, Bowsers, Cripes, Ullerys, Wagners, Wolfs, etc. These with others arriving in the intervening time formed a membership of about fifty. The southern and western boundaries originally were the Dayton and Western turnpike and the Union road, but the Metzgers, Shivelys, Ulrichs (Ullerys) and Cripes, in the southern part of the territory were affiliated more with the Bear Creek territory and so were ceded to that church. It will be remembered that there were no such direct highways as now nor commodious church houses to form community centers.

These sturdy "Frankstowners" from Pennsylvania were somewhat "clannish" and "held together" in forming new settlements. They were of a hardy race and ready for any "big job" when it came to physical achievements. The hospitable and comfortable homes they carved out of the huge forest trees "by hand" were monuments to their skill and untiring labor. Some of these houses are still remembered with the immense "girders" supporting the second floors which were fitted up for meeting services or "versamlung" assembly, "together coming." To these meetings they came on foot or horse back, often riding double. The brethren wore the low crowned broad brimmed beaver felt hats of those days. The sisters were clad in garments of somber hues begotten of their surroundings.

The busy housewives largely supplied the clothing from the backs of the sheep and flax from the fields, all "home-spun" and "hand-made." Their devotions in German songs were from "Psalters-phiel" and largely in Minor Keys, but their devotion went up from devoted hearts in such assemblies. Strange to think that after a quarter century of toil in clearing up farms the "wanderlust" should have again

SOME EARLY DAY FAMILIES

The following is taken from Stories and Sketches of Elkhart County, (1936).

One of the largest families, if not the largest, in the county is the Cripe family. The number of Cripes and Cripe descendents of the present day would have to be writtin in four figures. They are all decended from two brothers, Daniel and Jacob, who were among the earliest settlers in the county. Daniel, the younger of the two, was born in 1772, presumably in Pennsylvania, but before coming here was a resident of Montgomery County, Ohio. He first came in 1828, making the trip on horseback and selected a place for his future home. He and Christian Shoup entered land together, Mr. Cripe taking the north part and Mr. Shoup the south part of the tract which they selected. It extended from the Elkhart river on the west to a line a half mile or more east of the Big Four railroad. When it was divided each one had a long narrow strip. Mr Shoup's land included the farm which his grandson, Willard Shoup, has owned for many years. Goshen College campus is part of Mr. Cripe's farm, which extended a considerable distance east of that.

Mr Cripe was a minister in the Dunkard Church and from the time of his coming here until his death was the most prominent minister of that faith in Northern Indiana. Previous to his removal to Indiana he was for 17 years pastor of what was known as the Wolf Creek congregation in Montgomery County, Ohio. He organized the first Dunkard Church in this section. It was located on the west side of the river and was the predecessor of what is now known as the West Goshen congregation. He died December 10, 1859, at the ripe age of 87 years. His had been a busy and useful life and his name deserves to be held in reverence by his many descendants.

He had nine children, all of whom came with him from Ohio. His oldest son, Samuel, had seventeen children and all of them grew up and married. The greater number of them lived in Clinton township. Rev. Daniel Cripe's other children were; Benjamine, John, Daniel, Betsey, Susan, Catharine, and Polly.

Jacob Cripe, an older brother of Rev. Daniel Cripe, was born May 14, 1767, and lived to be 98 years old. He came here in 1830 and settled west of Goshen on the farm now owned by Mrs. Idella Miller. Not so much is known concerning him as a minister. He was engaged in farming and was an exemplary citizen. He had four sons and daughters; John B. Jacob B., David and Andrew, Esther, Polly, Betsey and Rosanna. Esther became the wife of Samuel Cripe and Polly of John Cripe. Betsey was twice married, first to Mr. Wolf and some years after his death to David Martin. Rosanna was the wife of John Ganger, the grandfather of Lon Ganger, who is the present court house janitor (1935) and, it may be added the best janitor the court house has had for 20 years.

The Cripe family is probably as well known as any family in Elkhart County. With very few exceptions they have been, from the time their ancestors located here, industrious men and women and good citizens. They have belonged to the great middle class who constitute the most substantial part of out country's citizenry, and have done their part in making Elkhart County one of the best counties in the state.

One of the members of the family who became widely known in his day was Joseph Cripe, who lived just a short distance east of Goshen. While he never held public office he was repeatedly chosen to fill positions of a semi-public character, such viewer of roads and ditches, administrator of estates, guardian and other positions of responsibility. He was a man of sound judgement and strict integrity and had the confidence of all who knew him.

I suspect this Martin Weybright is the first named child!!

Winger, et al p. 52 Elkhart Congregation (now West Goshen)
"The leader .... was Elder Daniel Cripe, who led a company of brethren from Montgomery County, Ohio, to seek homes in a new land. With him came Martin Weybright and Jacob Studebaker with their families. They arrived in the spring. Rude buildings were erected, some of the prairie broken and the first crops raised."

" In 1832 Elder Cripe called for assistants in the ministry. The membership, after careful meditation, cast their lots for Jacob Studebaker and Martin Weybright. Each took up has duties and rendered good service..."

"The first separate organization was that of Turkey Creek, 1837, ...In the new organization were John Leatherman, Henry Neff and Martin Weybright."

Daniel Cripe/wife Magdalena Miller had come from Campbell Co KY, to the Obannon Church, soon after 1800, then about 1805 moved up to Montgomery Co OH (Dayton -Lower Miami/Wolf Creek Church). [Clermont Co OH farmland was clay -many moved north to better land]

There were a large group of kin and neighbors that followed Daniel Cripe north in 1828, and immediately following. The Elkhart Church (now West Goshen) was their original home.

One of my current research projects is --how many of the Obannon Church families came up to Elkhart Co. Seems I'm getting mixed up in 2 important migrations to Elkhart Co: My Stump Ancestors coming from Canada to the Union Center Church, -and pastoring the Stonelick Church (meetinghouse of the Obannon Congregation) with the large migration to the Elkhart Church. I'm very interested, maybe some of you have the information?

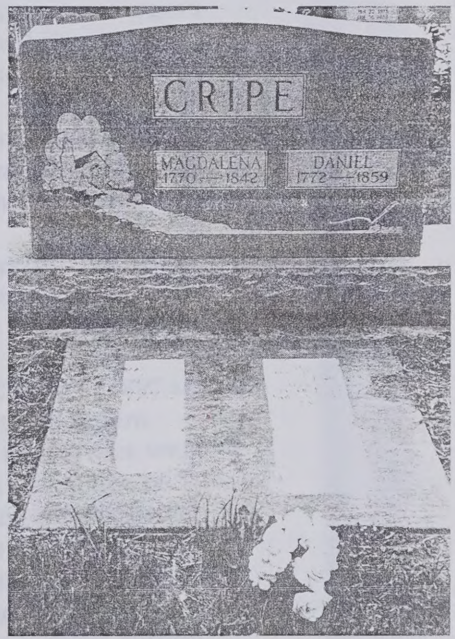
His son, David S. Caylor, was a physician who was elected to the ministry in 1864. Although he had great skill as a physician, his primary interest was the ministry, so much so that it is said he neglected his business and personal affairs to do the work of the church. He was a recognized leader in the Middle Indiana District and served as presiding elder at the Somerset church for many years. He died in 1903.

Several descendants of Elias Caylor were also involved in ministry in Indiana. They included John H., a brother, who was active at Stony Creek; and Abraham Caylor Jr., a nephew.

Cripe



Daniel Cripe was a true pioneer in every sense of the word. He was living in Montgomery County, Ohio, when he was first called to the ministry in the Wolf Creek congregation. He was one of the first settlers in northern Indiana when he came to Elkhart County in 1829 with his brother, Jacob, and two other families.

Daniel settled on a half section of land southeast of Goshen and erected a rude log cabin for shelter. He and his fellow settlers then built a crude plow, and he was selected to be the first to use it because he was the oldest. According to tradition, he was the first white settler to turn a furrow in the Elkhart Prairie.

He returned to Ohio in the spring of 1830 to convince others to move to the new land with him. Among those who followed him into Indiana were some of his children and their families.

As soon as this larger group arrived, Elder Cripe began preaching, largely in German, and a church was officially organized with Cripe as the presiding elder. It was originally called Elkhart, later renamed West Goshen. The first love feast was hosted in 1831 by Elder Cripe who donated the only ewe lamb he had for the meal. This was a considerable sacrifice at a time when livestock was a scarce and valuable commodity.

Elder Cripe was a tremendous force in the fledgling church in northern Indiana for many years, and much of the credit for the success of the churches in Elkhart County and surrounding areas can be laid to his initial efforts. He died Dec. 10, 1859, at age 87. Originally buried in a small cemetery at the south edge of Goshen, the remains of Elder Cripe and his wife, Magdelena, were moved in 1961 to the West Goshen Cemetery where their graves are marked with the original headstones and a newer memorial marker.

Deeter

William R. Deeter was born in Miami County, Ohio, in 1840 and became a teacher at the age of 18. He married Sarah Sipes in 1860. They moved to Delaware County, Ind., in 1866, settling on a farm south of Eaton. They relocated to a farm five miles north of Muncie in 1871, and it was in that year that he was called to the ministry in the Mississinewa Church. He was ordained as an elder in 1874.

In 1881, the Deeters moved to a farm three miles south of Milford and became part of the Solomon's Creek (Bethany) Church. It was at a time when the members at Solomon's Creek were talking about organizing a new church. The result in 1884 was Bethel. Elder Deeter became part of that congregation when it was organized and served as presiding elder for nearly 30 years.

He was also very active on a national basis serving on Standing Committee of Annual Conference many times and as moderator in 1898 at Naperville, Ill. He served as moderator of the Northern Indiana District for a number of years.

One of William Deeter's three sons, Manly Deeter, also became a church leader. He was born in Ohio in 1865 and came to Indiana with his parents. He married Ida Hoover in 1884, and they were baptized by his father.

Manly was called to the ministry in the Bethel Church in 1897 and became an elder in 1901. He served as moderator of the Northern Indiana District five times and as reading clerk three times, twice while his father was moderator. He also served on Standing Committee of Annual Conference several times. He was the presiding elder at Bethel for 16 years and presiding elder at New Salem for the first 15 years of its existence. He was a trustee of Manchester College from 1909 to 1915 and was very successful at raising funds for the college.

Following the death of his wife in 1939, Manley pursued mission work in Michigan's Upper Peninsula and in Kentucky.

The West Goshen Church is a mother church in the truest sense of the term. It was founded by some of the earliest settlers in northern Indiana, and 28 congregations can trace their lineage to this congregation.

Elder Daniel Cripe was one of the first settlers on the Elkhart Prairie south and west of what became Goshen when he moved there from Montgomery County, Ohio, in 1829. Making the move with him were Jacob Cripe, Christ Stouder, and John Pipenger. Owen Opperman, writing in 1897, described Elder Cripe as: "...a man of medium height, was broad shouldered and well muscled; his face was smooth shaven and his complexion was light. Being of kindly disposition, he made friends and commanded the love and respect for all who knew him."

Cripe and his fellow settlers arrived in the spring of 1829 and quickly erected rude log cabins for shelter. They also constructed a wooden plow so crops could be raised to see them through the coming winter. It was decided the oldest should be the first one to use the plow, so Elder Cripe, according to tradition, became the first white man to plow a furrow on the Elkhart Prairie.

Elder Cripe traveled to Montgomery County, Ohio, early in 1830 and convinced several others to return with him to Elkhart County. This included his son, Samuel Cripe, Martin Weybright, Jacob Studebaker, and John Cripe, Elder Cripe's nephew. Later that spring, John Cripe's daughter, Roseanna, was born. She was the first child born among the Brethren in northern Indiana.

With about 16 Brethren scattered throughout the area, Elder Cripe gathered them together in 1830 and delivered the first sermon to a Brethren group in northern Indiana. He also formally organized the Elkhart Church that year and was elected presiding elder and minister. Charter members of the organization included Elder Cripe and his wife, Magdelena; John Miller; Martin Weybright; Samuel Cripe; John Cripe; Elizabeth Stutsman; Mr. and Mrs. John Woolsey; and Jacob Cripe. The original territory included all of Elkhart County.

The first love feast was held in late summer 1830. No beef was available in the wilderness, so Elder Cripe donated a ewe lamb, the only one he had. About 20 people participated at Elder Cripe's home and some declared it was the most enjoyable they had ever attended.

As more settlers arrived, the demands of ministry became greater. Elder Cripe declared he needed help, so Jacob Studebaker and Martin Weybright were elected to the ministry. They were the first ministers ordained in northern Indiana.

The original Elkhart Church territory began to be divided as new congregations were formed. Turkey Creek became the first in 1838 in southern Elkhart County; Rock Run was organized in the eastern portion of the county in 1850; and Yellow Creek was organized in the west in 1856.

The year 1859 was a landmark year for the congregation. This was the year that Elder Cripe died at the age of 87. He and Magdelena were originally buried in Dierdorf Cemetery at the eastern edge of the Elkhart Prairie. Their remains were moved in 1961 to the West Goshen Cemetery next to the church where the spot is marked with their original headstones and a large, new marker.

It was also in 1859 that the first meeting house for the Elkhart Church was erected. The land was purchased from Jacob and Catherine Cripe for $1. Little is known about the original meeting house erected at this site, and there are no known photos. It has been described as a one-room, white frame building with a large double door in front and a single door in the rear. There is also some indication that there was a second building on the site for a time. It was referred to as the dwelling house and was evidently used for a kitchen and for overnight lodging of guests.

Two acres of land for a cemetery were purchased in 1863. The property was located adjacent to the church and was purchased from the Cripes for $100. This was the start of what has since become the

Even though a meeting house had been built, love feast and communion services continued to be held in the barns of members of the congregation well into the 1880s. It is believed the first love feast to be held at the church was in May 1883.

The Old Order division in 1881 resulted in the loss of a few members, but many later returned. The division with the Progressives (Ashland Brethren) in 1882 also resulted in the loss of a few members, but most remained with the original Elkhart German Baptist Church.

In 1885, the congregation decided to build a new, larger meeting house. The new church was built of brick and became a source of some minor controversy over an incident involving the windows.

Valentine Berkey was appointed to secure materials for the project. He wanted arched, cathedral-type windows and doors for the new building, but also knew the congregation would never approve them. He had the frames built in two sections: the lower section was of the standard rectangular shape and the top section was arched. These top sections were kept out of sight as construction progressed. When the bricks reached the tops of the rectangular sections, the arched tops were installed and bricked in place before anyone could voice an objection. Thus, the new church became the first German Baptist Church in Indiana to have cathedral-type windows and doors.

The dedication service for the new building was held in October 1886. A newspaper account of the time reported 800 people attended brought there by 285 teams of horses. About 200 people had to stand outside the church building during the service.

The old church building was sold for $40, moved to another site and turned into a private home.

A Sunday school program was established in the new building in 1890.

An acetylene gas lighting system was installed in early 1902. The system caused an explosion on the evening of April 1, 1906, which was heard four miles away. Three members of the church were injured but later recovered. A small addition at the south end of the building, however, was blown to pieces. Electric lights were installed in the church the following September.

In 1915, the name of the church was changed from Elkhart to West Goshen. The Elkhart City Church was organized in 1897, and there had been confusion ever since.

The 100th anniversary of the congregation was celebrated Nov. 27, 1930, with Otho Winger as the featured speaker. The first snowstorm of the season hit the same day which prevented many from attending.

The county agent, in continuation of his report, stated the sum realized on account of all these sales up to date to be $3,374.56½. The county treasurer, Peter L. Runyan, reported the receipt of $936.68, and the disbursement of $905.84, with amount of treasurer's commission $28.10 additional, leaving $2.72 to credit of county. The sum actually paid into the treasury on account of lots in the town of Goshen up to that date was $1,126.16½.

The Commissioners, at their meeting Nov. 2, 1835, ordered that "All that part of Jackson township in congressional township No. 35, in range 7, be known by the name of Benton township; that on the third Saturday of December, A. D. 1835, an election be held in the town of Benton, at the store of F. W. Taylor in said town, for the purpose of electing a justice of the peace for the township of Benton, and that Joseph Cowan be appointed inspector." The treasurer furnished a detailed report to the Board of Commissioners, summing up the financial state of the county to the 7th of that month, showing the net revenue to be $1,248.23, and the expenses of the previous year to be $1,119.88½, and the deficiency carried down from former years to equal $750.28½.

The work of organization made great progress during this period. In March, 1836, the commissioners issued an ordinance for the formation of a new township in the ordinary legal form then in use, viz.: "Ordered that all that part of Elkhart county west of range 5 east, and south of the Elkhart river, be set apart and known by the name of Baugo township, and that Wilcey S. Jones be appointed Inspector of Elections of said township, and that the elections of said township be holden at the house of James Town." Toward the close of the same session Jefferson township was organized out of that part of Washington township, known as township No. 37 north, range 5 east. Isaac Decamp was appointed Inspector of Elections, and the people ordered to meet for selection of a justice of the peace, on the first Monday in April, 1836, at the house of Isaac Hagle. The following school lands were reported sold during the previous month by Deputy Recorder John Gilmore, viz:

first burying ground was on section 10, on the farm now owned by Mr. Ippert. It has since been removed. Only about 15 persons were interred there. The cemetery at Union Center was the next public burying ground. They began to use this place about 1863. The ground is deeded to the G. B. Church.

The first marriage in the township was that of Daniel Stuckman and Mary Elson, the ceremony being performed June 3, 1837.

CHURCHES.

The first ministers who preached through this section were the German Baptist, the Methodist, United Brethren, Mennonites and Regular Baptist. At present there are but three Church organizations in the township outside of the village of Nappanee. The first church was built by the Reformed a little east of Union Center, and was called "The Temple." The members have all left or died, and the building is long since gone. The Regular Baptists were the next to erect a building. They have a very good house, on section 17. They have a good society here at present. The Mennonites have one church in the township, on section 19. Mr. Wisler is the pastor.

The first man that preached in the township was Daniel Cripe, of Elkhart Prairie. The sermon was delivered in Stouder's cabin on the farm now owned by J. M. Ippert. He was a German Baptist. That society continued to meet in private and school houses until in 1866, when they erected their church at Union Center. It is a brick building, 75 feet long and 45 feet wide, with a basement. Among some of the most prominent ministers who have officiated here are Henry Neff, John Burkholder, and John Amglemire. The society at present is in a very flourishing condition.

PERSONAL SKETCHES.

We proceed now to give personal sketches of a number of citizens of Union township, who have been more or less prominently identified with its history.

David M. Best was born in Ohio March 4, 1856, and is of English descent; he is the son of William W. and Nancy J. (Wagner) Best, both of whom are natives of Ohio, and are now living in Kosciusko county. Mr. B. is the oldest in a family of 10 children; he came to this county in 1876, and since that time has been engaged in teaching throughout the county; he taught the first school in the new school building at Nappanee; in the spring of 1880 he was elected Justice of the Peace. He was married March 27, 1879, to Mary E. Hall, who was born in Elkhart county, Ind., in 1857. Politically, Mr. B. is a believer in the principles of the Democratic party. His educational advantages were far from being good, as he lived most of the time during his boyhood days in a new country; was a farmer the greater part of his life until he was 20 years of age. In addition to being Justice of the Peace he is also collection agent, and is doing a fair business in that direction.

Charles Biehl, harness-maker at Nappanee, is the son of Joseph and Mary (Mouer) Biehl, both of whom are living in Bremen, and are natives of Germany; he was born in Indiana in 1855; came to this county in 1879 and engaged in business at Nappanee. He was married in 1880 to Rosanna Menges, who was born in St. Joseph county, Ind., in 1859. Mr. B.'s education when young was quite limited; he is a Democrat; was brought up in the Presbyterian Church. He now owns a harness shop, doing a good business, especially custom work.

Amos P. Blosser was born in this county June 7, 1854. His father, Peter Blosser, was born in Rockingham county, Va., Aug. 3, 1816, and removed with his parents, John and Barbara Blosser, to Mahoning county, O., when he was about 10 years of age; he was married in that county Jan. 25, 1850, to Mary Ann, daughter of William Reed, of the same county. She was born Dec. 15, 1821. They removed to this county in June, 1851, settling on the farm on which the family now resides. They have 3 children: Barbara, born Oct. 29, 1851; Susanna, Nov. 10, 1860, and Amos P. Mrs. Blosser died May 20, 1861, and is buried at the Yellow Creek cemetery, in Harrison tp. He and his family are worthy members of the Mennonite Church. Amos, the subject of this sketch, has been raised and educated in this county; since attaining the age of manhood he has traveled considerably both in the East and West. He has a good farm of 160 acres in sec. 2. He takes great delight in raising fine stock, which he has been carrying on to a considerable extent. At present his time is occupied with his bees, of which he has a large number of stands, and under his skillful management they promise a source of great profit. P. O., Goshen.

Edward Brown, of the firm of Brown & McLaughlin, saloon-keepers at Nappanee, was born in Pennsylvania in 1854 and is of German descent; he is the son of George N. and Mary (Woodcock) Brown, both of whom are natives of Pennsylvania and are living in Nappanee. Mr. B., the subject of this sketch, was married in 1879 to Nellie Shelmadine, who was born in Indiana in 1861. Politically, he is a Republican, His opportunities for securing an early education were only ordinary; he is a marble-cutter by trade, engaged in business in Nappanee in 1878 with Mr. McLaughlin; they keep Toledo beer and do a good business.

F. G. Bryson, blacksmith and wagon-maker at Nappanee, was born in this county in 1852 and is of Irish descent; he is the son this burying ground was on section 16, on the farm now owned by Mr. Lyons. It has since been removed. Only about 12 persons were interred there. The cemetery at Union Center was the next public burying ground. They began to use this grove about 1852. The ground is deeded to the U. B. Church.

The first marriage in the township was that of Daniel [illegible] and Mary [illegible], the ceremony being performed June 2, 1837.

CHURCHES.

The first ministers who preached through this section were the German Baptist, the Methodist, United Brethren, Mennonites and Regular Baptist. At present there are but three Church organizations in the township outside of the village of Nappanee. The first church was built by the Reformed a little east of Union Center, and was called "The Temple." The members have all left or died, and the building is long since gone. The Regular Baptists were the next to erect a building. They have a very good house, on section 17. They have a good society [illegible] of persons. The Mennonites have one church in the township, on section 19. Mr. [illegible] is the pastor.

The first man that preached in the township was Daniel [illegible] of [illegible] Prairie. The sermon was delivered in [illegible] cabin on the farm now owned by J. M. Lyons. The [illegible] German Baptist. They worshiped in [illegible] private and school houses until in [illegible], when they erected their church at Union Center. It is a brick building, 75 feet long and 40 feet wide, with a basement. Among some of the most prominent ministers who have officiated here are Henry Neff, John [illegible], and John [illegible]. The society at present is in a very flourishing condition.

PERSONAL SKETCHES.

We present herewith personal sketches of a number of citizens of Locke township, who have been more or less prominently identified with its history.

[illegible] H. [illegible] was born in Ohio, March 4, 1841, and is of English descent. He is the son of William W. and Nancy J. ([illegible]) [illegible], both of whom are natives of Ohio and are now living in [illegible] county. Mr. [illegible] is the oldest in a family of [illegible] children. He came to this county in [illegible], and since that time has been engaged in [illegible]

Politically, Mr. [illegible] is a believer in the principles of the Democratic party. His educational advantages were far from being good, as he lived most of his boyhood days in a new country. [illegible] was a farmer [illegible] until he was 24 years of age. In addition to being Justice of the Peace he makes collections, and is doing a fair business in that direction.

He was born in Indiana in 1853; came to this county in 1878 and engaged in business at Nappanee. He was married in 1880 to [illegible], who was born in [illegible] county, Ind., in 1857. STORIES AND SKETCHES

ELKHART COUNTY

A Pioneer History of Elkhart County

With an Introduction by Mrs. Virginia C. Meredith

THE CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

IN 1897 Owen Opperman wrote a historical sketch of the church of which he was a member, known at that time as The Brethren and also widely known as Dunkard. Today the official name is Church of the Brethren. Believing that something concerning the establishment of that church in the county and of its early history here will be of interest to many readers of this volume and particularly to people of that faith, some facts gleaned from Mr. Opperman's pamphlet are here given.

The first members of that denomination whom Mr. Opperman mentions as coming to this county to reside are Elder Daniel Cripe, Jacob Cripe, Christian Stouder and John Pippenger and their families who came in 1829. The most prominent among these is Daniel Cripe, who is described as a man of medium height, broad shouldered, well muscled, of light complexion and a smooth shaven face. He acquired a half section of land on Elkhart prairie about two miles south of the Goshen of the early days, but that was two years before Goshen was laid out. He built a cabin, as did all of the first settlers and prepared to make that place his home. Having something of mechanical genius in his make-up, he, with the aid of several of his friends made a plow with a wooden mouldboard, as the plows of that day were constructed. The primary purpose for the making of this particular plow was to turn several furrows to mark the claims of himself and his neighbors. As he was the oldest man in the little settlement it was decided that he should use it first. There is a tradition that he was the first settler to plow a furrow on Elkhart prairie. This would be impossible to determine as Col. Jackson, Major Violett and a number of others located on the prairie in the spring of 1829 and began breaking up the prairie sod to plant corn.

In the spring of 1830 he returned to his former home in Montgomery county, Ohio, for the purpose of persuading some of his neighbors to come to the St. Joseph Country, as it was called. Among those who accompanied him to his new home were his son, Samuel Cripe and family, Martin Weybright and family, and Jacob Studebaker and family. A nephew of Mr. Cripe, John Cripe and his wife were the parents of the first white child, a daughter, born to members of that church in northern Indiana. The Cripe family which is probably the largest family in Elkhart county, has adhered pretty closely to the Church of the Brethren and its members constitute a large proportion of many of its churches.

By 1832 a goodly number of people of this denomination had located in the county and Elder Cripe, feeling that he was unable to minister to all of them, asked that others be chosen to share the work with him. Accordingly, at one of their meetings Martin Weybright and Jacob Studebaker were chosen. Both of these men became quite prominent in the ministry, particularly Elder Studebaker, who lived until about 1880. He must have been the man who had the contract for building the county's first court house. Elder Daniel Cripe died in 1859 at the age of eighty-seven years and six months. He had become widely known and his people looked upon him as a patriarch. Those of the present day look back to him as the organizer of the first of their churches in the northwest and hold his name in reverence. It is claimed that he was the first protestant minister in Elkhart county.

Two other early day preachers were "Johnny" Leatherman and James Tracy. The former came in 1836 and preached in both Elkhart and Kosciusko counties. Elder Tracy came in 1852 and was one of the most active among the ministers of his day. His education was not extensive, but he was a born orator and was able to sway his audiences. He was chiefly instrumental in organizing the Rock Run congregation, known by many people as the Berkey church, in Clinton township. Soon after this congregation

Studebaker, and in 1830 moved with him to Elkhart county, Ind., settling on the Elkhart River, about one and a half miles south of where Goshen now is. Mrs. Miller came with her mother and step-father to Indiana, and amid the rude surroundings of a pioneer farm she grew to intelligent and noble womanhood. After his marriage Mr. Miller purchased fifty acres of wild land, and as their means were limited they were compelled to labor early and late and endure many privations. To their union seven children were given: Margaret A., wife of John E. Ogle; Sophia, who is now deceased, was the wife of James Bradugum; Caroline is the wife of George Simpson, and resides in Iowa; Mary, who is deceased, was the wife of Henry R. Stutsman; Sarah is the wife of Charles C. Miller; Lydia is the wife of George W. Miller, and Franklin T. is married and resides in Goshen. The mother of these children was called from life June 21, 1854, at which time the eldest of her seven children was eleven years of age and the youngest eleven days. She was a member of the German Baptist Church, and a most worthy woman in every respect, being a model wife, mother, friend and neighbor. From a humble beginning he has risen to honorable citizenship, is one of the solid men of Goshen, and a man who enjoys the esteem of both old and young. He has grown gray in the upbuilding of the city of his adoption, and has also grown wealthy, being the owner of 200 acres of fine land in Elkhart county and valuable property in Goshen, being a stockholder in the City National Bank. He is a Democrat from convictions and not from policy, but is broad and liberal in his views, and has been entrusted with public office and public funds many times, and has never been found wanting. He has administered on many estates, he being almost equal with a probate court, and probably no private individual's name appears more frequently in the archives of the county government. He is a member of the Masonic order and treasurer of Goshen Lodge, No. 12.

Benjamin Cripe, one of the pioneer settlers of Elkhart township, Elkhart Co., Ind., comes of Pennsylvania Dutch stock, or what is considered so, although his GREAT grandfather, Jacob Cripe, came from Germany. Daniel Cripe, son of Jacob, and the ~~father~~ GRANDFATHER of the subject of this sketch, was born in Somerset county, Penn., but in early life became a resident of Montgomery county, Ohio, and for some years resided in the vicinity of Dayton. In early life he united fortunes with Madeline Miller, and in due course of time the following family gathered about their hearthstone: Benjamin, Samuel, Daniel, John, Emanuel, Betsy, Susan, Kate and Polly. In 1829 Daniel Cripe settled on Elkhart Prairie. His son Emanuel Cripe, who has attained to the advanced age of eighty-six years, came to this section with his father, driving a team which hauled the household goods thither. When Daniel Cripe settled in this section, the land had not yet been opened for settlement, and the Indians, who were plentiful but not warlike, used often to come to his home. He made a good farm of 200 acres on the prairie, and was the first man to preach the gospel of the Dunkard Church in northern Indiana. Throughout life he used the German language, and attained to the patriarchal age of eighty-eight years. Daniel Cripe, father of Benjamin, was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, near Dayton, and was married to Sarah, daughter of Daniel and Susan (Miller) Ulery, to which union the following children were given: Lydia, Benjamin, Susan, Hannah, Elizabeth, Samuel (who died in childhood), Emanuel, Mary and Catherine. The three eldest children were born in Montgomery county, Ohio. In the fall of 1830 Daniel Cripe moved with his family to Elkhart county, Ind., and settled one mile south of Goshen, where he soon after entered 240 acres of land in Elkhart township, west of the river, where the farm of Joseph Yoder now lies. Daniel lived on his father's farm until 1839, then on the land west of the river, and with the help of his sons cleared up a farm from the timber which covered it, and lived here the rest of his life, dying when over four-score years of age, on December 25, 1885. He was born May 29, 1805; was a hard worker throughout his long life, and did his part toward bringing the county to its present state of civilization. He reared his children to honorable manhood and womanhood, and under the protecting wing of the Dunkard Church, of which he was a devout member the greater part of his life. He was successful as a tiller of the soil and was the owner of over 400 acres of land, which he acquired by energy and thrift, characteristics which he inherited from his worthy German ancestors. At the time of his death he had sixty-three grandchildren and ninety-three great-grandchildren. Benjamin Cripe, his son, was born on his father's farm in Montgomery county, August 23, 1827, and was but three years of age when brought by his parents to Indiana, and in the old pioneer schools of this section he received some schooling, but the principal part of his early life was spent in following the plow and in assisting his father to clear the land, the trees being split into rails for fences. In this rough yet useful school he grew to manhood, and was then united in marriage to Catherine, daughter of Matthias and Catherine (Freese) Inbody, the former of whom was a Virginian and the first plow and wagon-maker in the county. He made the famous "Peacock" plow, which was well known to old settlers. To Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cripe have been born six children who have lived: Nannah, Catherine, Daniel, Susan, Emanuel and Hiram. After his marriage Mr. Cripe settled west of Goshen about a mile and a half, on eighty acres of land which his father gave him and which was in the timber. This land he cleared by hard work, and he gradually increased it until he now owns 200 acres of land. Mrs. Cripe is a member of the Dunkard Church, and politically Mr. Cripe is a Democrat. He has taken an active interest in educational affairs, and has been school director of his district. He now owns a good tract of 180 acres and is living in the enjoyment of the fruits of his early labors.

Uriah Chandler, Mishawaka, Ind. The bustling towns, thriving villages and cultivated farms of St. Joseph county, Ind., have so long been common objects to our sight, that it seems almost beyond belief that we have in our midst an honored citizen who was one of those hardy pioneers who saw this county when it was a primeval wilderness. At that time there were no settlements within its bounds except the tents of two Indian traders at South Bend and the rude wigwams of the Pottawattomie Indians. The name of this resident is Uriah Chandler, a descendant of English stock. His grandfather, Daniel Chandler, was a soldier in the Revolutionary war and fought the British at the battle of Bunker Hill. Later he became a pioneer of Kentucky and was a contemporary of Daniel Boone. Of his origin there is little known except that he came from the State of South Carolina, where he followed the trade of wheelwright, removing from there to Owen county, Ky., where he lived for some years and later came to Jennings county, Ind., where he died at the age of seventy-five or eighty years. He was the father of Braddock, Edward, George, William, Lucy, Elizabeth, Polly and Susan. Braddock Chandler, the father of our subject, was born in South Carolina about 1788, and went with his father to Kentucky when he was a young man, and there became an overseer on the estate of the great Kentucky statesman, Henry Clay. He married and was the father of nine children, as follows: Uriah, Fannie, Nancy, Sarah, John, Henry, William, Alfred and Mary. Braddock Chandler was a soldier in the War of 1812, fought with Gen. Harrison at the battle of Tippecanoe and became acquainted with the Indiana country. Soon after the war he made several trips to this part of Indiana. On October 2, 1829, he arrived with his family at La Porte, and here he remained until the next spring, and in 1830 moved to South Bend, where he lived for two years. About 1832 he settled in Penn township, and here he cleared up a small farm from the forest, but in 1850 he went to California, crossing the great plains. In 1851 he returned to this county, where he died the next January, at the age of sixty-two years. He was one of the original pioneer settlers of this county, living here when the Pottawattomie Indians were the principal occupants. He was a great hunter, and many deer, bears and wolves fell before the unerring aim of his rifle. In Kentucky he had many adventures with the Indians, but in Indiana, after the war was over, he had no further trouble. He was a typical American pioneer hunter and trapper. Physically he was a large, powerful man and had more edu-

J. Artley Clark. In the death of J. Artley Clark September 17, 1914, there was removed from Goshen one of the most upright, energetic and lovable of the local merchants and business men. He had spent most of the years of his life in Goshen, and was for many years in the furniture business there, a member of the firm Smith-Clark Company, and had already attained the summit of the high road to success when death called him. He was thoroughly alert in business matters, a man of splendid character and public spirited in his attitude toward civic affairs.

Born at Mottville, Michigan, in 1869, he was the son of Amos and Anne (Artley) Clark, both natives of Pennsylvania. His early education came from country schools, but he graduated from the high school at Constantine, Michigan, and afterwards taught several terms in country districts. His business experience began as an employe with the firm of Elson & Becker, general merchants at Goshen, with whom he remained twelve years. His employers always had excellent commendations for the young man and his work, and on leaving Goshen he went to New Madrid, Missouri, and for about three years was connected with a lumber company. Returning to Goshen he became bookkeeper for one year in the state bank of that city, and resigned the position to become associated with Walter and Earl Smith in the furniture business. The name subsequently became the Smith-Clark Company, furniture and outfitters, with a department for undertaking in connection, and at the time of Mr. Clark's death this firm had a place second to none among enterprises of the kind in Elkhart County.

On August 22, 1900, Mr. Clark married Miss Estella Albright, daughter of Eli and Amelia (Seares) Albright. Her father is senior member of the Thomas-Albright Company, a manufacturing firm. Mr. and Mrs. Clark had two children: Evelyn and Harry Albright. Mrs. Clark, who occupies the substantial Clark homestead at 418 South Sixth street, was liberally educated in the common and high schools at Goshen and in the Westminster Seminary at Fort Wayne. She is one of the valued and popular members of local society. The late Mr. Clark was affiliated with the Knights of Pythias and was one of the liberal contributors to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

One of the oldest locomotive engineers still in active service with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway is Cephas Cripe of Elkhart, who has been piloting engines in and out of that division headquarters for the past twenty-three years. ginning of civilization and there is hardly a name more closely identified with the various affairs of the county and more honored by reason of such associations.

It was on a farm in Clinton Township of Elkhart County that Cephas Cripe was born. His father was Jacob C. Cripe, a native of Montgomery County, Ohio; his grandfather was Samuel Cripe, a native of Pennsylvania; and his great-grandfather was Daniel Cripe, also a native of Pennsylvania, whence he removed to Montgomery County, Ohio, as an early settler and when somewhat advanced in years came to Elkhart County in 1830, bought land and engaged in general farming. Daniel Cripe was the first preacher of the Dunkard denomination in Elkhart County and reared all his family in that faith. Grandfather Samuel Cripe and his brother Jacob were among the original members of the Dunkard Church which was organized at Goshen in 1835. Samuel Cripe had come to Elkhart as early as 1829, before the organization of the county and was first and foremost among pioneer activities. He possessed not only industry but a keen intelligence which enabled him to acquire what was at that time regarded as an immense estate. He bought land from time to time until his ownership extended over 1,500 acres, and he was able to give his seventeen children an eighty acre farm. His death occurred when sixty-two years of age. He was twice married and the three children of his first wife were Benjamin, Daniel and Jacob, while the fourteen of the second marriage were Joseph, David, Emanuel, Levi, Noah, Aaron, Solomon, Catherine, Magdalena, Tobias, Susan, Fannie, Mary and Elizabeth.

Jacob C. Cripe, father of Cephas grew up on a farm in Elkhart County, and some years later bought a tract of land on the Fair Ground Road about 3½ miles east of Goshen. There he was successfully engaged in general farming until his death at the age of eighty-eight. Jacob C. Cripe married Lydia Hanes, who died when quite young leaving six children: Adam, Solomon, Elizabeth, Eli, Thomas and Cephas.

An infant when his mother died, Cephas Cripe grew up in the rural district of Elkhart County, was well educated in the rural schools and acquired habits of industry which have been an important factor in his career. At the age of sixteen, leaving home he found work with a neighbor for whom he did chores for his board, and attended school during the winter seasons. During the summer months he received very low wages for his work. He remained with this neighbor two years, then worked with his brother at the carpenter's trade for a year, and again resumed employment with his first employer, beginning at wages of $13 a month. In that way he found a home and work for his hands until he was twenty-three years of age.

After his marriage Mr. Cripe settled down to farming on his own account, but at the end of a year entered the service of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad Company as a locomotive fireman. In 1893 he was promoted to the responsibilities of the throttle, and has been one of the trusted and efficient engineers on that road ever since.

In 1887 Mr. Cripe married Miss Minnie Whittaker, who was born in Baugo Township, a daughter of Eli and Jane Whittaker, a prominent old family of that section. Mrs. Cripe died February 8, 1888, leaving one child, Pearl S. In 1895 Mr. Cripe married for his second wife Catherine Weiler. She was born in Elkhart, a daughter of John and Sophia Weiler, both of whom were natives of Germany. Her father was born in 1830 and grew up and received an early training in conformity with the customs and rules of his native land. After attending the common schools steadily until fourteen he began an apprenticeship at the shoemaker's trade, and some years later when still a young man emigrated to America. He first lived at Coldwater, Michigan, and from there came to Elkhart and established himself in business as a custom boot and shoe maker. Later he turned his attention to the grocery business having a store on Main Street, and he was later in the liquor business and conducted his various affairs actively until his death at the age of sixty. His wife's maiden name was Sophia Fadish who died at the age of eighty-three. Their seven children were Mary, Augasta, William, Frank, Catherine, John and Emma.

Mr. and Mrs. Cripe have one daughter, Elsie. Mr. Cripe is a very popular member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and is also affiliated with Elkhart Lodge No. 425, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

John W. Fieldhouse. Properly regarded, a business is not only a means of earning a living and securing if possible a modest fortune, but also presents an opportunity for real service to others. Such has been the way in which Mr. Fieldhouse has regarded his work as a business man in the general field of real estate at Elkhart during the past thirty years. His various transactions and operations have netted him a comfortable fortune, but have benefited the city and its residents to an even greater degree. One of the old time business men of Elkhart, he has been one of the real upbuilders of that city, and his name could not be omitted from any list of leading business men.

SOME EARLY DAY FAMILIES

ONE of the largest families, if not the largest, in the county is the Cripe family. The number of Cripes and Cripe descendants of the present day would have to be written in four figures. They are all descended from two brothers, Daniel and Jacob, who were among the earliest settlers in the county. Daniel, the younger of the two, was born in 1772, presumably in Pennsylvania, but before coming here was a resident of Montgomery county, Ohio. He first came in 1828, making the trip on horseback and selected a place for his future home. He and Christian Shoup entered land together, Mr. Cripe taking the north part and Mr. Shoup the south part of the tract which they selected. It extended from the Elkhart river on the west to a line a half mile or more east of the Big Four railroad. When it was divided each one had a long narrow strip. Mr. Shoup's land included the farm which his grandson, Willard Shoup, has owned for many years. Goshen College campus is a part of Mr. Cripe's farm, which extended a considerable distance east of that.

Mr. Cripe was a minister in the Dunkard Church and from the time of his coming here until his death was the most prominent minister of that faith in Northern Indiana. Previous to his removal to Indiana he was for 17 years pastor of what was known as the Wolf Creek congregation in Montgomery County, O. He organized the first Dunkard Church in this section. It was located on the west side of the river and was the predecessor of what is now known as the West Goshen congregation. He died December 10, 1859, at the ripe age of 87 years. His had been a busy and useful life and his name deserves to be held in reverence by his many descendants.

He had nine children, all of whom came with him from Ohio. His oldest son, Samuel, had seventeen children and all of them grew up and married. The greater number of them lived in Clinton township. Rev. Daniel Cripe's other children were: Benjamin, John, Daniel, Betsey, Susan, Catharine, and Polly.

Jacob Cripe, an older brother of Rev. Daniel Cripe, was born May 14, 1767, and lived to be 98 years old. He came here in 1830 and settled west of Goshen on the farm now owned by Mrs. Idella Miller. Not so much is known concerning him as of the minister. He was engaged in farming and was an exemplary citizen. He had four sons and four daughters: John B., Jacob B., David and Andrew, Esther, Polly, Betsey and Rosanna. Esther became the wife of Samuel Cripe and Polly of John Cripe. Betsey was twice married, first to a Mr. Wolf and some years after his death to David Martin. Rosanna was the wife of John Ganger, the grandfather of Lon Ganger, who is the present court house janitor (1935) and, it may be added the best janitor the court house has had for 20 years.

The Cripe family is probably as well known as any family in Elkhart county. With very few exceptions they have been, from the time their ancestors located here, industrious men and women and good citizens. They have belonged to the great middle class who constitute the most substantial part of our country's citizenry, and have done their part in making Elkhart county one of the best counties in the state.

One of the members of the family who became widely known in his day was Joseph Cripe, who lived just a short distance east of Goshen. While he never held public office he was repeatedly chosen to fill positions of a semi-public character, such viewer of roads and ditches, administrator of estates, guardian and other positions of responsibility. He was a man of sound judgment and strict integrity and had the confidence of all who knew him.

Another of a generation ago became known as a great hunter. This was Samuel Cripe who lived north of Mid-

Not so much is known concerning him as of the minister. He was engaged in farming and was an exemplary citizen. He had four sons and four daughters: John B., Jacob B., David and Andrew, Esther, Polly, Betsey and Susannah. Esther became the wife of Samuel Cripe and Polly of John Cripe. Susanna was the wife of John Conger, the grandfather of Lon Conger, who is the present court house janitor (1923) and, it may be added, the best janitor the court house has had for 20 years.

The Cripe family is probably as well known as any family in Elkhart county. With very few exceptions they have been, from the time their ancestors located here, industrious men and women and good citizens. He was a man of sound judgment and strict integrity and had the confidence of all who knew him.

Another of a generation ago became known as a great farmer. This was Samuel Cripe who lived north of Middlebury. He always had several hounds and was especially fond of fox hunting, and in the days when wild turkeys abounded he did his share of hunting those birds.

Among the very few who have been elected to office are Milo Cripe of Goshen who served a term as county clerk, Jesse S. Cripe who was trustee of Jefferson township four years and Henry Cripe who served a term as county commissioner. Frank J. Cripe held the appointive position of attendance officer.

Another well known early day family is the Hess family. Unlike the Cripes, nearly all of whose descendants remained in the county, the Hess descendants have become scattered far and wide and are found in many states. They are all descended from Balser Hess, Sr., who was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1741, came to America and settled in York, Pa., about 1760, served under Washington in the Revolutionary War and later settled in Franklin County, O., where he became a large landowner. Today the farm which he owned constitutes a large part of the campus of Ohio State University.

His second son, Balser Hess, Jr., came West on horseback in the fall of 1828, coming as far as Elkhart prairie where a dozen or more families had already settled and which seemed to him almost a paradise. He returned to Ohio, sold his farm and in March, 1829, with his family started on the long journey to their new home. They made the journey in a covered wagon drawn by an ox team. It is said that for many miles of their four weeks' trip he drove the oxen with one hand and carried the baby, Martha, in the other. This baby when she grew to womanhood became the wife of Samuel Rensberger, who lived near the Rensberger school, east of Goshen.

The family crossed the Elkhart river at Benton in the evening early in April and stayed over night at Matthew Boyd's tavern. The next day they proceeded to the west side of Elkhart prairie. They located and built a cabin on the site of the present William Nymyer home, known as Sunset, between Goshen and Waterford.

Mr. Hess was one of the leading pioneer farmers, an able financier and a minister of what was known in that day as the Hardshell Baptist Church. He was an intimate friend of Major Violett who settled on the farm adjoining him on the south. They had been comrades in the war of 1812. Both of them did well their part in making a beginning of what was to be one of the best counties in the state. Mr. Hess's children were John, Elias, Mary Eve (Weybright), Balser III, Moses, Israel, Daniel, Emily (Baker), Martha (Rensberger), Jacob, Lydia (Shaeffer).

The oldest son, John, was nineteen years old when the family moved to Elkhart county. Five years later he married Barbara Rohrer and settled on a farm in Kosciusko county. His children were Mary (Huff), Ephraim, Cass (Lape), John R., Sarah Ann (Brower), and Henry B.

Elias was the favorite son and inherited the family homestead. He built the brick house which is now the home of William H. Nymyer and which has already been mentioned. Camp Ellis was located on his farm, just across the road from the house.

Balser III was also a Baptist preacher and farmer, living near Goshen. The author's father was well acquainted with him and used to speak of him as being very decidedly opposed to secret societies and he used to argue against them on the streets of Goshen.

Moses was one of those who went to California in search of gold in 1849 and whom Hon. D. R. Leeper styled "The Argonauts of '49" in his fascinating book bearing that title. He was a minister of the Dunkard Church and was quite wealthy for his day. He lived on a farm two miles northwest of Goshen, now owned and occupied by his son Aaron. Another son, Elhanan, is engaged in the real estate business in Goshen.

HISTORY OF WEST GOSHEN CEMETERY

John B. Cripe bought 80 acres of land from the Federal Government on June 9, 1831. Eventally he owned another 80 acres adjoining this property. This property was bounded on the north by present day Berkey Avenue, on the south by present day State Rd. 119 and on the east by present day Indiana Avenue. These two parcels were divided by a narrow road which ran north and south. In 1851 this property was sold to his son Jacob T. Cripe. Approximately 1000 feet south of Berkey Ave. and about 500 feet east of this north-south road, a small plot of land became the original burying ground. On Sept. 9, 1841, John Cripe died at the age of 24 years, 3 months and 24 days and is believed to be the first burial at this site. Joseph Stowder died Jan. 3, 1843 and he seems to be the second burial here. Many of the early settlers of the community are buried here.

In 1830 Daniel Cripe and his wife Magdalena founded the German Baptist Church at Goshen by holding meetings in their home at the south edge of Goshen. Daniel had charge of these services until in 1832 when he requested assistance and Jacob Studebaker and Martin Weybright were chosen to assist him. The early membership consisted of Daniel & Magdalena Cripe, the John Millers, Martin Weybrights, John Cripes, Samuel Cripes, Elizabeth Stutsman, John Woolsey, and the Jacob Cripe families. On Feb. 25, 1859, this small congregation purchased a small parcel of land from Jacob T. Cripe. This plot was used to erect their first Meeting House in 1859. On May 26, 1863 the church purchased 2 acres of land, which adjoined the old burial ground on it's west and south sides, from Jacob T. & wife Catherine Cripe. This area now includes all of the area which we show in our cemetery inscriptions as Sections 1 and 3. On April 30, 1901, the church purchased more land, located at the southwest corner of the cemetery and shown as Section 2. This plot of 57/100 of an acre was purchased from Daniel & Frances Sanders for $114, just $14 more than they had paid for the first 2 acres. Daniel Sanders had taken over the Jacob T. Cripe farm. This now made 2 and 63/100 acres for the cemetery. Then on April 24, 1922 the church once again purchased 6 more acres. This lies directly west of the burial ground and extended to the north to the church property at Berkey Ave. This cost $3,150, and paid to Frances Sanders.

At one time the old burial ground was so overgrown with poison ivy and weeds, that Judson Swihart and his two sons were hired to remove all the markers from the area. They were to plow the land, plant wheat for one season to try to eliminate the Ivy and undergrowth. The markers were then replaced, but it has created doubts that they were replaced in the original positions. (No doubt at that time that they did try to make some sort of map or description of who were buried there.)

A tool shed had been erected in the northwest corner of Section 2 for the use of the sexton and caretaker. In March of 1942 this was moved to the northwest corner of Section 1. This space now includes several small storage sheds.

In approximately 1970 it was decided to discontinue burying babies at the foot of an adult burial space. It was found that this practice prevented enough room for an adult burial, if the monuments were placed at the head of that space. Therefor a lot of 8 burial spaces were set aside (lot # 226) in the original plot for this purpose. This lot to be divided into 5 foot long spaces, which provided enough room for a baby burial and a place for the marker.

On December 29, 1975, it was announced that all legal matters were resolved

On December 29, 1975, it was announced that all legal matters were and that the City of Goshen agreed to "Take over the assets of the cemetery and the care of the grounds and promote the general welfare of the cemetery." All records are now being kept by the City Clerk at City Hall in Goshen. In the 1980's the George Hay property was being sold and so 12 acres of additional land was being sought to increase the size of the cemetery. An option was taken on the property but when the final say came on the purchase, the mayor of Goshen reduced the size of the land to only 6 acres. This property is located at the west of the cemetery and runs the entire length, north to south of the cemetery. This is as yet unplotted in 1988.

The West Goshen Cemetery Association was started Mar. 12, 1921. The first officers were: Jacob Gorsuch, Chairman; Melvin Cripe, Vice-President; Foster Berkey, Secretary and Elery F. Ulery, Treasurer. The first set of By-Laws were drafted, Feb. 27, 1922. Those who have served on this board since it's founding are: Foster Berkey, Jacob Gorsuch, Charles Brumbaugh, William Brumbaugh, Ward Chapman, Jacob Ulery, Paul Chrispyn, Alvin B. Cripe, Amasa Cripe, John M. Cripe, Melvin Cripe, Milo H. Cripe, Russell Cripe, Henry Ganger, David Gorsuch, J. Clair Kauffman, Wilbur Myers, Oliver Nusbaum, S.S. Scrogum, Ira J. Shidler, Arthur Stealy, Lorne Stealy, wife of Arthur took over after Arthur's death, John Stenberg, John Swihart and Ezra Warstler. This board still oversees the sale of lots and the care of the property.

NEFF'S CHURCH.

In 1860 the German Baptists erected their first church, seven miles southwest of Goshen. For a period of thirty years they worshiped in their dwellings, in accordance with the custom of Daniel Cripe, their first pastor. Elder Cripe appointed preachers for the Sabbath days, who would, each in his turn, discourse to the people at the house of one of the old settlers; but in 1832 Jacob Studebaker and Martin Weybright were ordained ministers, and relieved the ancient elder of much of the work which formerly devolved on him; however the old man would occasionally preach until, after an existence of 87 years and six months, he passed to the grave, and a year later his brethren erected the first German Baptist church within Elkhart county. This denomination possesses a large membership and 10 places of worship here.

THE GERMAN METHODIST CHURCH.

The German Methodists have made a most remarkable progress. A few years only have elapsed since they worshiped in the most primitive churches; but now they have erected sacred edifices throughout the county singularly chaste in design and costly in construction. Their members and influence are acknowledged; but yet it is strange that the records of their organization are so scant as scarcely to leave a date on which to base their history in this county. One fact, however, is established, which is that their Church at Goshen is said to be prospering under the pastoral care of the Rev. John Schneider.

THE MENNONITES.

These Mennonites are peculiarly interesting, since they take very little interest in the military or political world, merely contenting themselves with whatever the earth offers, and serving a God quietly and perhaps unobtrusively. They derive their faith from Menno Simon, a clever and ambitious man, who aimed at a study of Christianity, and molded his belief almost in accord with the theoretical Waldensians. The advent of these people to Elkhart may be set down as the year 1843, when John Smith arrived. Hoover, Henning, Strohm, C. and J. Christophel, Jacob Wesler, Hartman, Holdeman, Moyer, Smeltzer, Shaum, Blesser and Hershey subsequently came and settled in the county previous to 1850. Rev. D. Brenneman and others followed. The early meet-

ELKHART TOWNSHIP.

This township, though not so extensive as it was 50 years ago, contains 5,431 people, of whom 3,968 reside at the county seat. We have seen in the county history how the first Board of Justices divided the new district into the townships of Elkhart and Concord. Here it will only be necessary to note its topography, the names of men connected with its early history, and review its progress.

The face of the country is undulating and rather hilly toward the north. It is watered by the Elkhart river, which enters the township near Latta's line in section 34; by Rock run, a purely Elkhartian stream, and by Turkey creek, which enters at section 33, and forms a junction with the Elkhart near Waterford village. In sections 2 and 3 are two small lakes or ponds. The hydraulic canal receives the waters of the Elkhart river in section 24, one mile and one-half along its course south of the city of Goshen. Elkhart river forms the western limit of the city. The forests of the district are valuable, and occupy a large area.

The drift soil or sandy loam that now takes the place of the great inland seas, which a few centuries ago spread over our prairies, and even occupied that place on which nature has planted her sand hills and her forests, yields up a mine of agricultural wealth and bestows comparative peace and competence upon hundreds of industrious farmers, and helps to render the trade of towns and villages prosperous. The privileges given to the people of this township by nature itself cannot be overestimated—a rich alluvial soil, beautiful rivers and streams, thrifty forests of the most valuable trees, and a climate genial and comparatively healthy—all, all tend to prove the existence of a favored tract, where the best energies of man may be expended with pleasure and profit to himself and good results to the nation.

Elias Riggs and William Simpson may be named as the first settlers in the township. Mrs. Susan Nickerson, better known as Mrs. Wogoman, was here in June, 1828; John B. Cripe in March, 1829; Balser Hess and his brothers, William Felkner, Solomon Hockert, Major Violett, and John H. Violett, the first white male child born in the township, Nov. 22, 1829, were actual settlers before the close of that year,—the Frier brothers, Pearman, Peppenger, Irwin, Carpenter, Beck, Meddill, Sparklin, Bishop, Latta, John Inks, Stutsman, Blair, Cook, Jacob F. Cripe, Daniel Cripe, Stauffer, McConnell, E. Felton and Thomas Thomas, together with many whose names appear in the sketch of Goshen City.

The first mechanic was Jacob T. Cripe, who often grated corn in a perforated tin pail, and so prepared it for the morning's frugal meal.

John Inks was the first millstone cutter, and the work of these years was that of making stones for Rock Run and Elkhart Mills.

The honest blacksmith of the settlement was Joseph Knox. It is unnecessary to describe that old forge; it looked as delicate as a toy house, and like a match, would light up and fall into ashes in a few minutes. However, Knox did his work well and took his equal part in building up the country.

The first preacher among the white settlers was Rev. E. Felton. Azel Sparklin was also a preacher and class-leader, both introducing the doctrine of the Methodist Church.

Daniel Cripe was the first Dunkard minister, and is considered to have even preceded Felton.

Balser Hess was the Baptist minister of the day, and a cotemporary with Cripe. He was succeeded by Lechrist and Comer.

The first marriage in the township was that of Eve Hess and Jacob Weybright. It was celebrated with unusual eclat, and the young couple enjoyed the friendship of the community ever afterward.

The first baptisms among the white settlers were those of Stauffer and McConnell in 1830. This is so stated, but yet there are many circumstantial evidences of such introductions to Christianity having been previously made.

The first school was taught by Mr. Potts in a grotesque little cabin on Elkhart Prairie, known as the Wilkinson Lake School, commonly called "The University" by some newspaper men of the St. Joseph valley. The young Friers, Sparklins, Blairs, Thompsons and Dr. Jackson claimed this humble school as their alma mater. It, too, took a great part in building up the township.

SCHOOLS.

The township school-houses are all substantial brick structures, and are valued at $12,000. Few, if any, of the children of the township are unable to read; but the prevalence of a total ignorance of the language of Webster, and its written signs, is sadly apparent among the ranks of the aged and their immediate juniors. This ignorance of American letters is, in some cases, attended with a want of sympathy with the institutions of the Republic; however, the influence of the unsophisticated is so very limited that very little evil can result from their ignorance. On the contrary, the disadvantages under which they labor urge on their children to industry and study, and thus a great misfortune leads to a great good. It is a case of light from obscurity.

In 1880 there were nine school-houses in Elkhart township, all brick, of which the value was $12,000; value of school apparatus, $150; special school tax, four cents per $100, besides 25 cents special tax on each poll; total estimate of special school tax, $500; local tax for tuition assessed on each poll, 25 cents; number of volumes in library, 327; number taken out during the year, 87; number township institutes in 1880, 6; as to revenue for tuition, the amount on hand Sept. 1, 1879, $932.71; amount received in February, $849.27; amount received in June, $1,000.98; miscellaneous receipts, $217.13; total, $3,000.09; amount expended during the year ending Sept. 1, 1880, $2,014.70; amount on hand Sept. 1, 1880, $985.39; amount of special revenue on hand Sept. 1, 1879, $932.07; amount received during the year, $1,160.22; amount expended during the year, $1.136.75, leaving a balance on hand of $955.54. There were 229 male pupils admitted to the school during the year, and 190 female; average daily attendance of all children, 302; average length of school taught within the year, 140 days; there were nine male teachers employed and seven female, the average wages of the former being $1.96 per day, and of the latter, $1.51⅔. There is one district graded school in the township.

CHURCH.

The German Baptist (Dunkard) Church of Elkhart township, was organized in 1834. The first members were David Cripe and wife, John Miller, Martin Weybright, John Cripe, Samuel Cripe, Elizabeth Stutzman, John Woolsey and wife, and Jacob Cripe, Sen. The society grew gradually in numbers by the accession of

The German Baptist (Dunkard) Church of [illegible] township was organized in [illegible]. The first members were [illegible] settlers who came into the township. The meeting-house was erected on section 8 about 22 years ago. Jacob Studebaker, Daniel B. Studebaker, Jacob Leer, Andrew Bigler, have been preachers to the Church, and Moses Hess is the present pastor.

CITY OF GOSHEN.

The history of this city and the township to which it belongs is so peculiarly identified with that of the county, that many subjects pertaining specially to Goshen have been noticed in the second part of this work, which is devoted to the county history. There the survey of the original town plat by George Crawford and the subsequent sale of many of the lots by Oliver Crane in July, 1831, is recorded. The original plat contained 301 lots; but from time to time the village extended its boundaries until toward the close of the first half of the century no less than 964 lots were built upon, and left about 100 in the market. Those additions comprised Allbright's, containing 36 lots; E. M. Chamberlain's, 114; Walsh's, 5; Purl's, 35; McAllister's, 9; Freeman and Hattel's, 5; Wilson and Beyerle's, 32; Kendig's, 18; Hahn's, 13; Rowell's, 22; Mayfield's, 17; Wilson & Bartholomey's, 44; Mercer, Latta and Copeland's, 182; Wm. Crane's, 127; Oliver Crane's, 50; J. H. Barnes', 160; L. Mercer's, 51; and Wilson and Hawk's, 44. Those valuable little town sections have passed in great part from the hands of the original owners into those of over 900 householders, and the tract, once a prosperous hunting ground of the red man, has been converted into one of the neatest little cities in the union. The streets are very regular, and with the exception of that portion of Main and Market streets devoted to business houses, give place to a double line of thrifty shade trees; while ranked on either side are the neat, and in many instances, magnificent, residences of the people. The roadways are graded, the sidewalks broad and in good order, and the utmost effort of good taste displayed everywhere.

The first house erected on the town plat was erected by William Bissell at the corner of Sixth and Washington streets, where the Baptist church is now located. Dr. King built the second house. Singer constructed the first frame building in 1831, and eight years later E. N. Chamberlain built a brick structure of quite a pretentious character.

The first mill was erected on Rock Run creek, near its confluence with the Elkhart. This was a mill of the olden time indeed; but ministers who came into the township. The meeting-house was erected on section 8 about 25 years ago. Jacob Henderson, Daniel B. Stubblefield, Jacob Lyon, Andrew Bruner, have been preachers to the Church, and Moses Hess is the present pastor.

CITY OF CLINTON.

The history of this city and the township to which it belongs is so peculiarly identified with that of the county, that many subjects pertaining especially to Clinton have been noticed in the general part of this work, which is devoted to the county history. There the survey of the original town plat by George Gaylord and the subsequent sale of many of the lots by Oliver Crane in July, 1836, is recorded. The original plat contained 80 lots, but from time to time the village extended its boundaries until toward the close of the first half of the century no less than 904 lots were built upon and left about 150 in the market. These additions comprised Allbright's one adding 16 lots; E. M. Chamberlain's, 114; Welch's, 8; Hull's, 83; McAllister's, 9; Freeman's and Hatch's, 6; Wilson and Bogardus's, 32; Kenally's, 12; Hobb's, 12; Bowers's, 32; Reynold's, 11; Wilson & Bentley's, 41; Moore, Lutts and Copeland's, 158; Wm. Crane's, 157; Oliver Crane's, 80; J. B. Morrow's, 180; L. Morrow's, 63; and Wilson and Hawk's, 44. These valuable little town sections have passed in great part from the hands of the original owners into those of over 200 home-builders, and the waste, once a prosperous hunting ground of the red man, has been converted into one of the neatest little cities in the union. The streets are very regular, and with the exception of that portion of Main and Market streets devoted to business houses, give place to a double line of thrifty shade trees, while ranked on either side are the neat, and in many instances, magnificent, residences of the people. The roadways are graded, the sidewalks raised and in good order, and the utmost effect of good taste displayed everywhere.

The first house erected on the town plat was erected by William Bissell at the corner of Sixth and Washington streets, where the Baptist church is now located. Dr. King built the second house. brought by his parents to this county, where amid pioneer environments he was reared, sharing in the hardships of frontier life and in the arduous duty of developing a new farm and teaching school in the winter season. He wedded Sarah Geyer, who was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, January 4, 1831. Her father was born in the Shenandoah valley of Virginia, whence he removed to Montgomery county, Ohio, where he followed the occupation of farming, his death occurring in that state. He was twice married, his wives being sisters of the name of Artz. By the first union he had four children: Abraham, Isaac, Sarah, Mary. The children of the second marriage were: Eliza, Catherine and Andrew. Both parents of Mrs. Noah Davenport, Jr., are now deceased. To Noah and Sarah (Geyer) Davenport were born six children: Catherine, deceased; Emma, who is the widow of Albert Garver and lives in Goshen with her mother; Dora Belle and Levi, who have departed this life; Robert of Clinton township; John, also deceased. The daughter Emma began teaching when sixteen years of age and successfully followed that pursuit for sixteen terms, being regarded as a capable instructor of Elkhart county. Noah Davenport, Jr., was called to his final rest May 13, 1894, and his loss was deeply regretted, for he was known as a reliable business man, progressive citizen, an honored pioneer and a devoted husband and father. His widow still survives him and is now living in Goshen.

Robert Wesley Davenport, reared upon the old home farm in Concord township near Dunlaps, began work in the fields almost as soon as old enough to reach the plow handles and through the summer months he aided in the work of the fields, while in the district schools in the winter seasons he acquired his education. He now resides on section 29, Clinton township, where he owns and operates eighty-two acres of rich land, and he is regarded as one of the progressive and energetic farmers of his locality. Everything about the place is kept in good condition and modern machinery facilitates the work, while substantial buildings furnish shelter for grain and stock. In addition to his farming interests he was the originator and founder of the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Company, which began business with forty subscribers, the central being in his own dwelling for three years, and its headquarters later being transferred to Millersburg.

On the 20th of December, 1883, Mr. Davenport was married to Miss Mary J. Cripe, who was born in Clinton township, in 1860. Her paternal grandfather, Samuel Cripe, had seventeen children. By his first wife, Esther Cripe, there were three: Benjamin, Daniel and Jacob. For his second wife he chose Susan Mikesell and they had fourteen children: Joseph, Emanuel, Noah, David, Levi, Catherine, Magdalene, Fanny, Susan, Mary, Solomon, Elizabeth, Aaron and Tobias. With one exception all remained residents of Elkhart county and all reared families but one. Most of them became residents of Clinton township. The grandfather gave to each of his chil-

Robert Wesley Davenport entered upon the [illegible] Clinton township [illegible] Goshen [illegible] [illegible] and he is regarded as one of the [illegible] [illegible] good [illegible] [illegible] in the farming [illegible]

On the [illegible] Mr. Davenport was united to Miss Mary J. [illegible] who was born in Clinton township, in 18[illegible] [illegible] Goshen [illegible] With the [illegible] of [illegible] Clinton township [illegible] dren eighty acres of land in Elkhart county and thus they secured a good start in life. Daniel S. Cripe, who died November 3, 1904, father of Mrs. Davenport, was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, in 1821, and was only eight years of age when in 1829 he was brought by his parents to this state, the family home being established on Elkhart prairie. He married Miss Barbara Rarick, who died April 12, 1900, a daughter of Christian and Effie Rarick, and they became the parents of nine children: Lucinda, deceased; Elizabeth, who married A. S. Yoder, and has also passed away; Effie, the widow of Adam Opperman, of Goshen; Isaac, who operates a restaurant in Goshen; Christian, living in Goshen; Noah, a farmer of Canada; Mrs. Mary Davenport; Levi, a resident of Goshen; and Ida, the wife of John Price, living west of New Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport have a family of seven children: Ida, a teacher and graduate of North Manchester college; Grace; Gertrude; Pearl; Ray and Jay, twins, the latter dying when one year old; and Merle. The parents hold membership in the German Baptist Brethren church, in which they take an active interest, contributing generously to its support. Mr. Davenport is a deacon in the church and is secretary of the German Baptist Brethren mission board of northern Indiana. His views on the temperance question are indicated by the active support which he gives to the Prohibition party. He is an advocate of all honorable and worthy principles, and in his relations with his fellow men has ever been straightforward and reliable. His word is as good as any bond and his business career has been such as neither seeks nor requires disguise. In August and September of 1900, in company with D. R. Yoder, of Goshen, he went to Europe, and while abroad visited many points of modern and historical interest in England, Italy, France, Switzerland, Germany, Holland and other countries, spending two months in the old world.

HOMER A. JOHNSON.

His paternal grandfather, Solomon Johnson, was a native of Vermont and became one of the pioneer settlers of Elkhart county, locating in Osolo township. There were few residents in this section of the state and he joined with the other frontier settlers in developing the county, planting the seeds of progress and improvement here. Throughout his entire business career he carried on agricultural pursuits. Guy C. Johnson, father of our subject, was born in Vermont and came to Elkhart county with his parents in the '30s. Here he was reared amid the pioneer environment and assisted in the arduous task of developing new land. His youth was largely a period of earnest toil, but he developed thereby the industry and enterprise which have proved such important eleand N. J. Sijmensma, two ministers, and their families and a number of their brethren and their families, on account of their faithful adherence to the doctrine of non-resistance, were compelled to emigrate from Holland, and settled in this county, where Bro. Sijmensma died a few years afterward, leaving the care of his charge to Bro. Schmidt, who still held services at stated periods, in the Holland language. After his death the remaining members united with the other Mennonite congregations. Trouble arose among the Mennonites of this county on account of the various ideas and practices brought from the different places represented by the new settlers, and from this schismatic difficulties have resulted the three factions known as Mennonites, United Mennonite Brethren in Christ, and the Old Order(Wisler) Mennonites.

In the Mennonite faction there are at present the following organized congregations in Elkhart county: Nappanee, under the care of Bishop David Burkholder and Noah Metzler. Holdeman, under the ministers Henry Weldy, John Hygema and Jacob Bixler. Olive, under Jacob Shenk. Yellow Creek, ministers Jacob Christophel and Jonas Loucks. Elkhart, ministers John F. Funk, Samuel Yoder, George Lambert, D. H. Bender. Goshen, ministers J. S. Hartzler and I. W. Royer. Salem, minister Jacob Christophel. Clinton, under John Garber, bishop, and Samuel Honderich, minister.

History of the German Baptist Brethren Church in Jackson Township.

By J. H. Warstler.

Unfortunately there do not seem to be any records of the early history of the Brethren church in the county, but they were among the first settlers in the county; and among them was Daniel Cripe, the first minister of the Brethren church in Elkhart county, who located on Elkhart prairie about 1828 or '29. The first church was organized about 1830 or '31, and Jacob Studebaker and Martin Weybright, Sr., were elected to the ministry, being the first ministers chosen in Elkhart county. And it is pretty clear that Daniel Cripe was the first minister of any denomination in the county.

From this organization the church spread over the county, and in the year 1856 a church was organized in the south part of the county, embracing the most of Jackson and Benton townships and a part of Kosciusko county. This organization was named "Solomon's Creek and N. D. Sprunger. Two ministers and their families and a number of these brethren and their families, on account of their faithful adherence to the doctrine of non-resistance, were compelled to emigrate from Holland, and settled in this county, where Rev. Sprunger died a few years afterward, leaving the care of his charge to Rev. Schmidt, who still held services at stated periods, in the Holland language. After his death the remaining members united with the other Mennonite organizations. Trouble arose among the Mennonites of this county on account of the various ideas and practices brought from the different places represented by the first settlers, and from this arose the difficulties that have resulted in the three factions known as Mennonites, United Mennonite Brethren in Christ, and the Old Order, (Wisler) Mennonites.

In the Mennonite faction there are at present the following organized congregations in Elkhart county: Nappanee, under the care of Bishop David Burkholder and Noah Metzler; Holdeman, under the ministers Henry Weldy, John Hygema and Jacob Bixler; Olive, under Jacob Shank; Yellow Creek, ministers Jacob Christophel and Jesse Loucks; Elkhart, ministers John F. Funk, Samuel Yoder, George Lambert, D. H. Bender; Goshen, ministers J. S. Hartzler and I. W. Royer; Salem, minister Jacob Christophel; Clinton, under John Garber, bishop, and Samuel Honderich, minister.

Growing up in a Plain Pennsylvania German Community in the 1920's

By Harold C. Miller

It was early on a Wednesday morning, although it could have been any day of the week during the summer produce season. The voice of my grandfather rang loud and clear as he called out "Sweetcorn, potatoes, tomatoes, apples, beans, redbeets, radishes" and whatever else was in season then. Grandpa was about sixty years old at the time and I, about fourteen, was his constant companion and assistant. Back in the twenties we—meaning my grandfather, myself, our horse "Old Frank," and the heavily laden springwagon—were a common sight on the south side of Goshen, Indiana. Each morning we traversed our usual route, starting on Third Street at the court house and working our way to its southern end. Then north on Main Street, south on Fifth Street, covering all the parallel streets up to Tenth or Eleventh, depending on when our supply of fresh produce was sold out. Grandpa's cries—he disdained the use of an old brass bell as used by competitors—brought the busy housewives to the street to make the daily selection of fruits and vegetables that they required for the day's meals.

well remember a particular day when one of our customers loudly proclaimed that a competitor was selling sweet corn at a nickel less than we were charging. Grandpa merely replied: "That's the place to get it. Giddap." Old Frank reacted to the command and we went rolling on our way, leaving the complainant standing there open mouthed. And we got so that we completely ignored an old lady, living by herself and requiring but little food, who pinched every tomato on the wagon before buying a few cents worth of merchandise. She would come running out of the house, screaming and waving her arms, and we refused to stop. I can imagine the imprecations she heaped upon us as we drove away.

Goshen, now a thriving industrial town of about twenty thousand inhabitants was, at that time, a rather sleepy town of ten thousand. Populated by a church-going and law-abiding group of people it was one of those places where the theft of a bicycle was considered a major crime. Many of the people in the city and the surrounding area were of Pennsylvania Dutch or German extraction, the various church congregations consisting of Amish, Mennonites, Old Order Mennonites, Church of the Brethren (Dunkards), and others. Their similiar and distinctive dress was a customary sight on the streets and in the stores of the city. Also common were their one-horse or two-horse teams attached to odd-looking buggies, tied to the hitching posts which completely surrounded the old county court house. The court house still stands, but the hitching posts are gone.

The Following Maps of Elkhart County and the Township maps, will give you a better look of where the first Cripes' and related families, first located when they arrived in Elkhart County. They were taken from the 1967 Plat book at the Goshen Public Library. Just this week I got the chance to see the original survey of Goshen, which started in 1831, but I was unable to make any copies, due to the fact that it has been laminated and can not be in any strong light for any amount of time.

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way.
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love . . . .

Dear Uncle Florian & Aunt Carolyn,

Well a year has passed and now there is a new addition to our home. She's a special baby. Looks just like her daddy. She was born May 9, 1984 at 12:29 P.M.. She was 19½ in. long and weighed 7 lb. 1 oz. She's as healthy as any + very well adjusted to this big, cruel world. We had a normal delivery all natural and it was a great experiance. She's such a blessing. We thank God for her every day.

Hope you are all healthy + happy.

The Order for the Administration of the Sacrament of Baptism
to Youths and Adults

† The person or persons to be baptized shall stand before the minister, who, addressing the people, shall say,

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as all men have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, and our Savior Christ said, "Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God," I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant that this person may receive the forgiveness of sins, be baptized with water and the Holy Spirit, and may be received into Christ's holy Church, and be made a living member of the same.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, the aid of all who need, the helper of all who call upon thee for comfort, the life of all who believe, and the resurrection of the dead: We call upon thee for this thy servant, that he coming to thy holy Baptism may receive remission of his sins and be filled with the Holy Spirit. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, and grant that he may be faithful to thee all the days of his life, and finally come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

† Then, addressing the person or persons to be baptized, the minister shall say,

Well beloved, you are come here desiring to receive holy Baptism. We have prayed that God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, would grant to receive you, release you from sin, sanctify you with the Holy Spirit, and give you the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life.

Do you truly and earnestly repent of your sins and accept Jesus Christ as your Savior?

I do.

Copyright © 1964 by Board of Publication of The Methodist Church, Incorporated.

Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; and in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life?

I do.

Do you desire to be baptized in this faith?

I do.

Will you then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments and walk in the same all the days of your life?

I will, by God's help.

† Then the minister shall say,

Let us pray.

O merciful God, grant that all sinful affections may die in this thy servant, and that all things belonging to thy Spirit may live and grow in him. Grant that he may have the power and strength to triumph over evil, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and beloved children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

† The minister, asking the name of each person to be baptized, and then repeating the same, though not including the surname, shall baptize him, saying,

. . . . , I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

† Then the minister may have the people stand, and, addressing them, may say,

Brethren of the household of faith, I commend to your love and care this person, whom we this day recognize as a member of the family of God. Will you endeavor so to live that he may grow in the knowledge and love of God the Father, through our Savior Jesus Christ?

† Then the people shall say,

With God's help we will so order our lives after the example of Christ that, surrounded by steadfast love, you may be established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal.

† Then the minister may give this or another blessing:

God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit bless, preserve, and keep you, now and for evermore. Amen.

The Order for
Confirmation and Reception
Into the Church

† Those to be confirmed shall stand before the minister, who, addressing the people, shall say,

Dearly beloved, the Church is of God, and will be preserved to the end of time, for the conduct of worship and the due administration of his Word and Sacraments, the maintenance of Christian fellowship and discipline, the edification of believers, and the conversion of the world. All, of every age and station, stand in need of the means of grace which it alone supplies.

These persons who are to be confirmed have received the Sacrament of Baptism, have also been instructed in the teachings of the Church, and are now ready to profess publicly the faith into which they were baptized.

† Then the minister, addressing those who are to be confirmed, shall say,

Do you here, in the presence of God, and of this congregation, renew the solemn promise and vow that you made, or that was made in your name, at your Baptism?

I do.

Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior and pledge your allegiance to his kingdom?

I do.

Do you receive and profess the Christian faith as contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments?

I do.

Do you promise according to the grace given you to live a Christian life and always remain a faithful member of Christ's holy Church?

I do.

Copyright © 1964, 1968 The Board of Publication of The United Methodist Church, Inc.

† Then the candidates shall kneel, and the minister, laying his hands upon the head of each severally, shall say,

. . . ., the Lord defend you with his heavenly grace and by his Spirit confirm you in the faith and fellowship of all true disciples of Jesus Christ. Amen.

† Those confirmed shall rise, and the minister, addressing the people, may say,

Let those persons who are members of other communions in Christ's holy Church, and who now desire to enter into the fellowship of this congregation, present themselves to be received into the membership ot The United Methodist Church.

† Then those confirmed and those to be received from other communions shall stand before the minister; and he, addressing them, shall say,

Will you be loyal to The United Methodist Church, and uphold it by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, and your service?

I will.

† Then the minister may say,

Let those persons who are members of other congregations of The United Methodist Church, and who now desire to enter into the fellowship of this congregation, present themselves to be welcomed.

† Here a lay member, selected by the Administrative Board, may join with the minister in offering the right hand of fellowship to all those received.

† Then the minister may have those received face the congregation, and, causing the people to stand, he shall address them, saying,

Brethren I commend to your love and care these persons whom we this day receive into the membership of this congregation. Do all in your power to increase their faith, confirm their hope, and perfect them in love.

† Whereupon the people shall say,

We rejoice to recognize you as members of Christ's holy Church, and bid you welcome to this congregation of The United Methodist Church. With you we renew our vows to uphold it by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, and our service.

† Then the minister may say,

Go forth in peace, and be of good courage; hold fast that which is good, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit. And the blessing of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be with you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

THE LORD GOD IS A SUN AND SHIELD

How lovely is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts!

My soul longs, yea, faints
for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For the Lord God is a sun and shield;
he bestows favor and honor.
No good thing does the Lord withhold from those who walk uprightly.

O Lord of hosts,
blessed is the man who trusts in thee!

A Little Step Away

To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.
The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.....

p. 640 Neff's Church

In 1860 the German Baptists erected their first church, seven miles southwest of Goshen. For a period of thirty years they worshiped in their dwellings, in accordance with the custom of Daniel Cripe, their first pastor. Elder Cripe appointed preachers for the Sabbath days, who would, each in his turn, discourse to the people at the house of one of the old settlers; but in 1832 Jacob Studebaker and Martin Weybright were ordained ministers, and relieved the ancient elder of much of the work which formerly devolved on him; however the old man would occasionally preach until, after an existence of 87 years and six months, he passed to the grave, and a year later his brethren erected the first German Baptist church within Elkhart county. This denomination possesses a large membership and 10 places of worship here.

Daniel Cripe was the first Dunkard minister, and is considered to have even preceded Felton.

The German Baptist (Dunkard) Church of Elkhart township was organized in 1834. The first members were David Cripe and wife, John Miller, Martin Weybright, John Cripe, Samuel Cripe, Elizabeth Stutzman, John Woolsey and wife, and Jacob Cripe, Sen.

Emanuel F. Cripe was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, March 7, 1829 and is a son of Samuel and Susannah Cripe, who removed with their family to this county in 1830. This was when the Indians were very numerous and whites few. Emanuel attended school in a log cabin, and David Pippenger was his first teacher. His father and uncle, Emanuel Cripe, purchased the first stove for the school-house and waited two years for their money. Mr. Cripe, having but limited early educational advantages, is a self-made man. In September, 1951, he married miss Fannie Mikesell, by who he has had 10 children, 9 now living, viz.: Milton, Mary J. Elias, Sarah E., Milo, Alice, Arminda, Ira and Sadia. The deceased's name was Elijah. Mr. Cripe owns 160 acres of valuable land and is a farmer. He is a worthy member of the German Baptist Church,

Cripe Reunion 70 Years Ago

Seventy years ago, members of the Cripe family, all relatives, gathered for a reunion at just about this time of year and had their picture taken. The reunion was in a woody area at the corner of Dewey and Lincoln avenues, according to Devon Cripe, owner of the picture which is reproduced above. Mr. Cripe would like to hear from any relatives who might find themselves in the photo. He lives at 13450 Highway Eight, Space 22, Lakeside, Calif. 92040, but is formerly of Goshen. Note the difference in the dress of many of the people. Some are very conservative for the day while some of the women have on large flowery hats.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Two consecutive puffs of black smoke billowed from the Sistine Chapel today, meaning the 111 cardinals locked inside failed to elect a new pope of the Roman Catholic Church.

Voting for the first time since entering their secret conclave Friday, the cardinals cast two ballots, according to Vatican spokesman the Rev. Romeo Panciroli.

The first smoke appeared as the bells of St. Peter's Basilica were still chiming the noontime angelus. Then nine minutes later more black smoke poured forth, followed by what appeared to be white smoke, which would be the signal that a successor to Pope Paul VI had been chosen.

But the white smoke turned

OF THE

CRIPE

FAMILY

ONCE UPON A TIME (July 18, 1959) there lived in a house in Payette, Idaho ~~the woods~~ a family of three Cripe's ~~bears:~~ Papa Florian ~~Bear,~~ Mama Carolyn ~~Bear,~~ and Baby Fritz ~~Bear.~~ 10:48 pm Suddenly there was a knock at the door.

"Come in, Goldilocks," said Mrs. Cripe ~~Bear,~~ and she opened the door. "You're not Goldilocks!" exclaimed a surprised Mrs. Cripe ~~Bear~~

"No, I am not Goldilocks," replied a little brown-haired girl. "I am Lisa Marie." She bounced into the room and flopped (all 8 lbs.) herself into little Fritz's ~~Bear's~~ chair. "And I've come to stay," she hurriddly added.

"Of course you can stay," said Mrs. Carolyn ~~Bear,~~ her heart stolen

"I second it," replied Mr. Florian ~~Bear.~~

"Baby," remarked the little Fritz ~~Bear.~~

And so Lisa Marie came to stay with the Cripe's ~~Bears.~~ marry John Metzger and become my 2nd great grandmother (see Figure 35). Another Ulrich, Mary (born 1786), daughter of Stephen Ulrich III, would marry Andrew Metzger and become both my 2nd and 3rd great grandmother (see Figures 39 & 8).

Cripes

Another land buyer in 1802 (July 6) was "Daniel Chribe." He purchased all or part of Section 17 in Jefferson Township. That put him about a mile from Daniel and John Miller. A county history tells us that Daniel Cripe's brother John had the "earliest settlement" along Big Bear Creek, "in the vicinity of Liberty."[495] I have seen no records on this sale, but it makes sense. Bear Creek runs right through section 17 of Jefferson County, sold to brother Daniel Cripe. It's about a mile from the village of Liberty. This suggests that the Cripe brothers came at the same time. And a third brother, Samuel, probably came with them. In 1804 John and Samuel "Chribe" bought part or all of Section 35 in Madison County,[496] and the next year(1804) John, Daniel, and Samuel Kripe paid taxes of $.35, $4.55, and $.25.[497] These three were sons of the immigrant Jacob Cripe and his wife Elizabeth Ulrich. (Jacob had died in 1801.) They had all come from Morrisons Cove, were in late middle age, and brought with them sizable families. John was the oldest, and much the richest, judging by his tax bill. John was married to Catherine Shively, Daniel to Barbara Replogle. It's never certain whether land transactions show people moving their homesteads or just adding to their holdings. In fact it's not always clear whether transactions indicate accumulating wealth, restless movement, or financial fecklessness. But the Cripe brothers did obtain more property as the years went by. Daniel bought quarter sections in Clay Township (1805) and Perry Township (probably 1805). In 1806 he bought another Perry Township quarter section, the one adjacent, SE and SW 1/4s of Section 3 (see Map 11), and in 1807 the SW 1/4 of Section 27 in Clay Township, in partnership with Jacob Replogle (his wife's brother).[498] That same year (1807) he sold part or all of his original 1802 purchase in Jefferson Township (Section 17).[499] In 1809 Samuel Cripe bought some Perry Township land (SE 1/4 of Section 5), and in 1812 some more in Section 24, which he sold the next year (1813).[500] That same year brother John sold another part of section 24 to his son John Jr., along with part of section 34. [501] Daniel bought the SW 1/4 of Section 3 in Perry Township in 1814. Meanwhile a "J Grip" had entered the scene, buying the SW 1/4 Section of Section 2 in Perry Township. This was in August 1813, a year before Jacob Chribe bought nearly next door (the SW 1/4 of Section 3). So the "J" might stand for "Jacob." But four years later (1818) "Jacob Grip and J. Grip" bought a quarter section together in Clay County ((NW 1/4 of Section 37). Apparently J Grip is "Joseph Gripe," who bought the SW 1/4 Section of Section 25 in Perry Township in 1819 [502] The most likely candidate for Joseph is John Cripe's son. If so we are now into the next generation. Jacob Cripe could be John's brother or the son of either Samuel or Daniel. Again name repetitions in families make identification difficult. There were many Cripes in Montgomery County.

Shivelys

The Christian Shively Sr. family arrived in 1805, all of them, Christian Sr., wife Susannah Cripe, and seven children. They had left Morrisons Cove early that year, gone by wagon up the Forbes Road, over the mountains, to where a road branched off to McKeesport. There they loaded their belongings, and probably their wagon, on a flat boat, went down the Monongahela to Pittsburgh, and on to Cincinnati. Then it was north to Montgomery County, once more by wagon, to the "Wolf Creek" settlement. (Abraham and Daniel Miller had settled there the year before.) Christian Shively had plenty of buying power too, and began accumulating property at once, even though he still owned some back in Morrisons Cove. In 1805

Chorale St. Antoni — Joseph Haydn

THE CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP
Laudate Dominum, — Wolfgang A. Mozart
(from Vesperae solennes de confessore)

Sing praise to God above all ye nations,
Praise Him ye people, all ye souls on earth.
For He hath shown His kindness to us.
His love and merciful kindness,
and the truth of God lasteth forever.

Praise to the Father and to the Son and the Holy Spirit,
As it was then and will ever be
Both now and always, through the centuries, everlasting. Amen.

*THE INVOCATION PRAYER

*THE HYMN OF PRAISE — (Hymn to Joy Tune)
Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before Thee, Opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day!

All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heaven reflect Thy rays;
Stars and angels sing around Thee, Center of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blossoming meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain Call us to rejoice in Thee.

Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of living Ocean—depth of happy rest!
Thou the Parent, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine:
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the Joy Divine.

Mortals, join the mighty chorus Which the morning stars began;
Perfect love is reigning o'er us, gracious love binds one to all.
Ever singing march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward In the triumph song of life. Amen.

(please be seated)

A LITANY OF FAITH

Liturgist: Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not upon your own understandings.

All: For the Lord is God, and we are just people of Creation.

Liturgist: Remember the Lord's way, and follow it; go not about after your own heart and your own eyes.

All: For it is the Lord's way to fashion and to release. It is the Lord's way to revive the lost and to strengthen the weak.

Liturgist: The works and wonders of God surpass our understanding!

All: Blessing, honor, glory, be to God for ever and ever.

Liturgist: Amen and Amen.

THE CHORAL RESPONSE

The Lord Is My Shepherd

Noble Cain

A LITANY OF CONFESSION

Liturgist: With the assurance of your Presence, O God, we are now ready to think about others around us and on the great issues of our day. We confess to having abilities and training that can work toward solutions for the common good. But we also confess to having too little desire.

All: O Lord, forgive.

Liturgist: And forgive us any self-comforting words we are tempted to use to ease the discomfort we may feel when we face into the truth of Your call to do justice, O God.

All: Lord, forgive us, we pray.

Liturgist: Forgive our ease at living comfortably in an uncomfortable world. Especially forgive us when we would consider our position deserved.

All: Forgive us, O Lord, and renew a right spirit within us.

Liturgist: For the separation that exists between what we know and what we do, for the distance we keep in all our relations . . . .

All: We pray your forgiveness, O God.

THE WORD OF HOPE

Liturgist and Choir

Walk Him Up the Stairs
(from the musical Purlie)

THE PASTORAL PRAYER

THE SERMON

Dr. Robert W. Neff

A Single Standard of Morality

*A HYMN OF DEDICATION

Eternal Ruler of the Ceaseless Round

Finlandia Tune

Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round
of circling planets singing on their way,
Guide of the nations from the night profound
Into the glory of the perfect day,
Rule in our hearts that we may ever be–
Guided, and strengthened, and upheld by Thee.

We are of Thee, the children of Thy love,
Believers in Thy well be-lov-ed Son;
Descend, O Holy Spirit, like a dove,
Into our hearts that we may be as one—
As one with Thee, to whom we ever tend,
As one with Christ, our Brother and our Friend.

We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
One in our love of all things just and fair,
One with the joy that breakest into song.
One with the grief that trembles into prayer,
One in the power that makes Thy children free—
To follow truth, and thus to follow Thee. Amen.

15 GENERATION PEDIGREE CHART

It is recommended that a chart be filled out initially as a work copy. Then after checking for accuracy a final copy can be typed or done in ball point. If desired the final copy can be done with the front side being on one chart and the back side on another chart. Then both charts can be laid side by side to show all information at once.

I go to prepare a place for you

The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want.
He maketh me lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Wings of Hope

Turn your back on your sorrows and look forward to tomorrows
Use the wings of hope to soar
Leave behind pain and despair, as well as meaningless cares
To new heights they will carry your soul

Rise up higher, ever higher, carried by faith and desire
Past any fog that may hinder your sight
Soar above the clouds to the heavens, determined and driven
'Til amongst the stars you take your place in the night

Hopes wings, they are broad, they will carry you along
Never allowing your spirit to fall
Find solace in the knowing, your legacy will forever be glowing
A special light to be admired by all

On the wings of hope pass to a place of peace
Where the joys of one's life shine eternal . . .

Uncle Glenn is the historian of the Cripe family. He has collected odds and ends of information that fit together.

The first Cripe in America was Jacob, and his last name was probably either Gribe or Grebe. According to family legend, substantiated by the will in which he willed his cooper's tools to a son, he was a cooper in Germany, and his departure from that country was necessitated by his killing or injuring (with a barrel stave) one or more young cadets from a nearby military camp, who came periodically to break up his shop. He seems to have established himself in Montgomery County?? Pennsylvania where he set about establishing a large family. Somehow, the spelling of the family name was changed & the family was soon known as Cripe. Between Jacob & his grandson Daniel there is a gap - no one seems to know which of Jacob's sons was Daniel's father. Daniel and Magdalena, his wife, now lie in the West Goshen cemetery. Daniel's dates are 1772-185 Magdalina's 1770-1842. A historical group has provided them with a new gravestone ~~or [illegible]~~ which reads, "Elder Daniel Cripe was the first Brethren minister & father of the Brethren Churches of Northern Indiana. He established his new home in 1829 on the site of Goshen College after moving from near Dayton, Ohio.[11] After constructing a wooden plow, tradition says he was the first white settler to plow a furrow on the Elkhart prairie.

With Daniel & Magdalena came his brother Jacob & his wife, plus children, in-laws & grandchildren of each. The first burial in this new settlement was that of a child — possibly Daniel's grandchild a Lehman or Layman baby who had not been able to withstand the rigors of the trip. Jacob gave a hillside to be the community's cemetery.

Daniel is said to have returned to Ohio to persuade his son Samuel & Samuel's wife to make the trip to Northern Indiana.

Frederick Huber, came from Bavaria. Family tradition tells a story of his father — The elder Huber was only a peasant, but one day when he was in town visiting the chemist's shop, who should come in but the kings doctors to purchase medicine for the horses that were the pride of the king. The peasant Huber did not approve of the medicine & said so. He supposedly went to the king himself & told him it would kill the horses. He asked that it be tried on dogs first & so it was.

The dog did and the grateful king wished him to replace his doctors, but Huber said, "Why, I'm only a poor peasant." Interesting story.

Florian Zimmer's is another interesting tale. A Prussian drummer boy in the Franco-Prussian War, he finally became so sickened or frightened that he simply went home to his family. His father was naturally disconcerted to find his son a deserter, but he couldn't leave him to meet his fate, nor dared he shelter a deserter long for the sake of the rest of the family. ~~So~~ he moved the whole family to America and settled at Waweka, Ind.

F.Z. is said to have had a vile temper. On one occasion a granddaughter saw him stop plowing his garden plot, pick up a fence post and pound the horses head. He was a poor man & could ill afford the loss of an animal, but that did not seem to deter him. It is also said that when he went to do the milking he would leave his pocket knife in the kitchen for fear he might cut off the cows' teats in a fit of temper. Uncle Glenn, a great-grandson, remembers him as seeming pleasant enough, but adds, "The women didn't have much use for him." Grandpa Cripe then points out that F's father saw to it that his wife carried any burdens to be carried + if she faltered, she was whipped.

The will of Jacob Sr. indicates that he married Elizabeth Ulrich and had Jacob Jr., John, David, Samuel, Elizabeth, Catharine, Hanna & possibly 2 daughters deceased as there were substantial bequests to Christian Shively & John Wise - and maybe another daughter named Easter?

Daniel & Magdalena's children are: Emanuel, John, Pollie, David, Samuel, Benjamin, Elizabeth, Susan and Catharine.

Samuel had 2 wives: Esther Cripe & Susan Mikesell. I believe that Aaron & all children listed after him in Samuel's will are Susan's children. There were Benjamin, Kathryn, David, Magdeline, Jacob, Joseph, Aaron, Emanuel, Fannie, Levi, Noah, Pollie, Susan, Solomon, Elizabeth, Tobias.

Aaron, who died March 5, 1906, aged 71 yrs, 6 mos. was married to Sarah (daughter of Christian & Christine Weaver of Homeworth or Columbiana, Ohio) who died Nov. 12, 1917, aged 79 yrs. 5 months. Their children were: Israel, Susan, Emanuel, Joseph, Melvin, Alvin, Edward, Emma, Amanda, Samuel, Sylvanus.

Alvin B. Cripe, born Jan. 1, 1879, died May 1920, married Leona Huber ~~E~~ born Aug 19, 1882, died June 10, 1939. Their children are Glenn, Frederick Florian, Virgil, Velma, Jesse.
